Konigsburg,2011-06-28 E L Konigsburg revisits the town of Epiphany to tell the story of Margaret Rose Kane Connor s older half sister It s about the summer when Margaret Rose turned twelve the same year that Cabbage Patch dolls were popular that Sally Ride became the first woman to go into space that El Nino turned the world upside down Margaret Rose begins her summer with a miserable experience at camp from which she s rescued by her beloved eccentric uncles Little does she know that her uncles in turn need rescuing themselves from a tyrannical city council determined to tear down her uncles life work three spectacularly beautiful towers that her uncles have been building since before Margaret was a baby A rousing book about intelligence art and the fierce preservation of individuality from EL Konigsburg The Outcasts of 19 Schuyler Place E. L. Konigsburg,2005-12 For use in schools and libraries only Margaret Rose Kane Connor Kane s older half sister in Silent To The Bone tells the story of the summer she was twelve Dust Off the Gold Medal Sara L. Schwebel,Jocelyn Van Tuyl,2021-08-23 The oldest and most prestigious children s literature award the Newbery Medal has since 1922 been granted annually by the American Library Association to the children s book it deems most distinguished Medal books enjoy an outsized influence on American children s literature figuring perennially on publishers lists on library and bookstore shelves and in school curricula As such they offer a compelling window into the history of US children s literature and publishing as well as into changing societal attitudes about which books are best for America s schoolchildren Yet literary scholars have disproportionately ignored the Medal winners in their research This volume provides a critically and historically grounded scholarly analysis of representative but understudied Newbery Medal books from the 1920s through the 2010s interrogating the disjunction between the books omnipresence and influence on the one hand and the critical silence surrounding them on the other Dust Off the Gold Medal makes a case for closing these scholarly gaps by revealing neglected texts insights into the politics of children s literature prizing and by demonstrating how neglected titles illuminate critical debates currently central to the field of children's literature. In particular, the essays shed light on the hidden elements of diversity apparent in the neglected Newbery canon while illustrating how the books respond, sometimes in quite subtle ways, to contemporaneous concerns around race, class, gender, disability, nationalism, and globalism. The Second Mrs. Gioconda E.L. Konigsburg, 2011-06-28. Why did Leonardo da Vinci lavish three years on painting the second wife of an unimportant merchant when all the nobles of Europe were begging for a portrait by his hand? In E.L. Konigsburg's intriguing novel, the answer lies with the complex relationship between the genius, his morally questionable young apprentice, and a young duchess whose plain features belie the sensitivity of her soul.
