The Palestinians The Road To Nationhood:

The Palestinians David McDowall, 1998-07-01 In 1918 Christian and Muslim Arabs formed over 90 per cent of the population of Palestine Fifty years later those left were a powerless minority in their own land while most were refugees outside Palestine Since 1967 Israel has been an occupying force in Gaza and the West Bank expropriating for example over 60 per cent of the West Bank's land area dispossessing many Palestinians While Israel's actions have been condemned in United Nations Security Council and General Assembly resolutions Israel continues its actions largely unchecked Within Israel Palestinians are systematically discriminated against in almost all areas of society While condemning the Israeli government's policies the Report also discusses the abuses of the newly established Palestinian Authority The Palestinians provides information on the outlook for Palestinian society and examines why the peace process once seen to offer a constructive way forward is now in tatters The Report offers a concise and accessible analysis of the background to this situation and cogently argues that the international community must act as a matter of urgency to enable a just settlement to be found one that promotes and protects Palestinians rights and enables Israel and the Palestinian Authority to work towards peaceful coexistence based on respect for international law Please note that the terminology in the fields of minority rights and indigenous peoples rights has changed over time MRG strives to reflect these changes as well as respect the right to self identification on the part of minorities and indigenous peoples At the same time after over 50 years work we know that our archive is of considerable interest to activists and researchers Therefore we make available as much of our back catalogue as possible while being aware that the language used may not reflect current thinking on these issues The Palestinians
