Bostom, M.D., 2011-11-29 Exceedingly well organized and extensively documented CHOICE The publication of the present anthology of primary sources and secondary studies on the theme of Muslim antisemitism is a groundbreaking event of major scholarly cultural and political significance Editor Andrew Bostom has mined the relevant literature to produce the fullest record on this subject in existence After the publication of his work all the oft repeated but erroneous misunderstandings of a tolerant Islam and of a medieval Jewish Muslim golden age will need to be permanently retired Everyone interested in Jewish and Islamic history as well as current events in the Middle East should read this book and soon Steven T Katz Director Elie Wiesel Center for Judaic Studies Boston University and author of Post Holocaust Dialogues and The Holocaust in Historical Context The antisemitism of the Muslim Middle East that we hear see and experience daily from the racist cartoons to the constant chorus of pigs and apes is often attributed to European origins as if the radical Muslim world learned this endemic hatred through the tragedy of imperialism and colonialism In fact a deep suspicion and frequent loathing of Jews is deeply rooted in the Middle East antedating European rule and sometimes evidenced in passages in the Koran and early holy Islamic texts Andrew Bostom produces a vast literature of Middle Eastern Islamic antisemitism and critics may be as surprised at his conclusions as they are unable to refute his carefully compiled corpus of evidence Victor Davis Hanson Senior Fellow The Hoover Institution Stanford University author of Carnage and Culture and A War Like No Other This comprehensive meticulously documented collection of scholarly articles presents indisputable evidence that a readily discernible uniquely Islamic antisemitism a specific Muslim hatred of Jews has been expressed continuously since the advent of Islam Debunking the conventional wisdom which continues to assert that Muslim animosity toward Jews is entirely a 20th century phenomenon fueled mainly by the protracted Arab Israeli conflict leading scholars provide example after example of antisemitic motifs in Muslim documents reaching back to the beginnings of Islam The contributors show that the Koran itself is a significant source of hostility toward Jews as well as other foundational Muslim texts including the hadith the words and deeds of Muhammad as recorded by pious Muslim transmitters and the sira the earliest Muslim biographies of Muhammad Many other examples are adduced in the writings of influential Muslim jurists theologians and scholars from the Middle Ages through the contemporary era These primary sources and seminal secondary analyses translated here for the first time into English such as Hartwig Hirschfeld s mid 1880s essays on Muhammad s subjugation of the Jews of Medina and George Vajda s elegant comprehensive 1937 study of the hadith detail the sacralized rationale for Islam s anti Jewish bigotry Numerous complementary historical accounts illustrate the resulting plight of Jewish communities in the Muslim world across space and time culminating in the genocidal threat posed to the Jews of Israel today Scholars educators and interested lay readers will find this collection an invaluable resource for understanding the phenomenon of Muslim antisemitism past and present

FURTHER PRAISE FOR THE LEGACY OF ISLAMIC ANTISEMITISM Stimulating and informative a fascinating and disturbing voyage of historical discovery It is magnificent Martin Gilbert official biographer of Winston Churchill Author of Never Again A History of the Holocaust and The Jews of Arab Lands Their History in Maps Boston s eye opening anthology should become an essential resource Ilan Stavans Lewis Sebring Professor in Latin American and Latino Culture and Five College 40th Anniversary Professor Amherst College Dr Andrew Bostom has written a Garrison Tales from Tonquin James O'Neill, 2006-10-01 The thought of enlisting in the French Foreign Legion held a tantalizing allure for young nineteenth century American boys in search of adventure Apart from youthful fantasies few Americans seriously pursued joining the legion These surprising and extraordinary short stories written by one young man who did take us to that time and place Born in Bridgeport Connecticut James O Neill enlisted in the legion in 1887 at the age of twenty seven In 1890 deployed to Tonquin in French Indochina more familiar today as Tonkin Vietnam O Neill faced tropical heat infectious disease and sudden death Like his contemporary Stephen Crane O Neill s ability to tell an engaging story and his keen sense for telling details provide a unique record of his time in this exotic world In these thirteen tales O Neill shows with surprising subtlety that France s efforts to conquer and govern Indochina were foolhardy Although the only American in his stories is the narrator it is clear that the tales are aimed at readers in the United States and are intended to caution against the construction of empires abroad Far from polemical tirades these are absorbing unadorned stories remarkably contemporary in both style and substance Charles Royster provides a short biography of O Neill who seems to have vanished into obscurity a few years after these stories were first published in 1895 Royster has also unearthed and included two essays O Neill published in magazines of the time one a description of a Buddhist temple in Hanoi and the other an appreciation of the Hungarian novelist Maurus J kai Whether read for historical value literary merit or political insights Garrison Tales from Tonquin is a true discovery The American Catalogue ,1911 American national trade bibliography The Publishers Weekly ,1925
