Quest for Divinity Mohamed A. Mahmoud,2015-02-01 A highly influential Sudanese reformist thinker Mahmud Muhammad Taha is regarded as a product of a dual legacy rooted in mystical Islam on the one hand and in the tradition of modernity on the other Publicly executed in 1985 following his conviction of apostasy Taha offered distinctly original interpretations of the Qur an and a radical theory of Islamic prayer In Quest for Divinity Mohamed Mahmoud presents an in depth and balanced treatment of Taha s controversial yet significant thought The author's ability to provide access to relevant literature in both Arabic and English offers readers a rare view of the considerable nuance in Taha's thought With rich detail Mahmoud explores Taha's theories of human freedom and his social message referred to as the second message of Islam with its emphasis on political economic and social equality Taha's embrace of modernity is further assessed relative to his position on science law and art areas that have always attracted Muslim modernists Quest for Divinity will attract attention to Taha's compelling but little known intellectual contribution as a seminal modern reformer of Islam Such recognition is long overdue and will enrich the current debates on Islam and modernity American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 20:1 Jerald F. Dirks,Ahrar Ahmad,Asma

Barlas,Ataul Huq Pramanik,Ermion Sinanovic, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Horse of Karbala D. Pinault,2016-04-30 Horse of Karbala is a study of Muharram rituals and interfaith relations in three locations in India Ladakh Darjeeling and Hyderabad These rituals commemorate an event of vital importance to Shia Muslims the seventh century death of the Imam Husain grandson of the Prophet Muhammad at the battlefield of Karbala in Iraq Pinault examines three different forms of ritual commemoration of Husain's death poetry recital and self flagellation in Hyderabad stick fighting in Darjeeling and the Horse of Karbala procession in which a stallion representing the mount ridden in battle by Husain is made the center of a public parade in Ladakh and other Indian localities The book looks at how publicly staged rituals serve to mediate communal relations in Hyderabad and Darjeeling between Muslim and Hindu populations in Ladakh between Muslims and Buddhists Attention is also given to controversies within Muslim communities over issues related to Muharram such as the belief in intercession by the Karbala Martyrs on behalf of individual believers A Psychology of Early Sufi Samâ` Kenneth S. Avery,2004-08-05 Avery explores the psychology of altered states among the early Sufis It examines sam listening to ritual recitation music and certain other aural phenomena and its effect in inducing unusual states of consciousness and behaviours The focus is on the earliest personalities of the Islamic mystical tradition as mediated by texts from the tenth to the twelfth centuries C E These unusual states are interpreted in the light of current research in Western psychology and also in terms of their integration into historical Islamic culture A Psychology of Early Sufi Sam provides new insights into the work of five Sufi authors and a fresh approach to the relation between historical accounts of altered states and current psychological thinking Living Sufism in North America William Rory Dickson,2015-09-14 Offers an overview of Sufism in North America In this book William Rory Dickson explores Sufism as a developing tradition in North America one that exists in diverse and beguiling forms Sufism's broad minded traditions of philosophy poetry and spiritual practice infused Islamic civilization for centuries and drew the attention of interested Westerners By the early twentieth century Sufism was being practiced in North America Today s North American Sufism can appear either explicitly Islamic or seemingly devoid of Islamic religiosity Dickson provides indispensable background on Sufism s relation to Islamic orthodoxy and to Western esoteric traditions and its historical development in North America The book goes on to chart the directions that North American Sufism is currently taking directions largely chosen by Sufi leaders The views of ten North American Sufi leaders are explored in depth and their perspectives on Islam authority gender and tradition are put in conversation with one another A more detailed picture of North American Sufism emerges challenging previous scholarly classifications of Sufi groups and highlighting Sufism s fluidity diversity and dynamism Living Sufism in North America is the first book of its kind to bridge the gap between Sufi studies and the study of North American contemporary religious movements As such it is a comprehensive pioneering work of potential interest to a wide array of scholars in the field of contemporary religion Patrick Laude author of Pathways to an Inner Islam Massignon Corbin Guenon and Schuon Paradise Lost Nieuwenhuijze, 2021-11-15 Is the Middle East the mother of all conflicts This volume consisting of essays published over a space of twenty five years but extensively rewritten and updated probes into the forever problematic relationship between the Middle East and Western Europe between a revitalizing Islamic and a post Christian civilization It treats firstly the dynamics of the Middle Eastern civilization building up a kaleidoscopic picture of the Middle Eastern perception of change and development modern science in a non Western context the ambiguity of westernization in Middle Eastern revitalization politico religious resurgence the matter of means and ends The second part concentrates on the intercultural relations between the Middle East and Europe while the third part considers implications for oriental and development studies the new demands arising and the perceptual and methodological retooling needed to meet them In singling out the intercultural nature of events and clashes this important volume advances an innovative interactive style of scholarship Paradise Lost Cristoffel A. O. van Nieuwenhuijze, 1997 This book probes from various angles into the forever problematic relationship between the Middle East and Western Europe between a revitalizing Islamic and a post Christian civilization In singling out the intercultural nature of events and clashes it advances an innovative interactive style of scholarship The Crucifix on Mecca's Front Porch David Pinault, 2018-08-22 This book on Islam has an unusual perspective It argues that a critically minded examination of Islam can help Christians achieve a deeper appreciation of the unique truths of their own faith It draws on the author s personal experiences living in Islamic countries and his fieldwork with persecuted Christian minority communities especially in Pakistan Yemen Egypt and Indonesia It includes the author s own original translations of Islamic texts in Arabic Persian and Urdu as well as primary source materials in Latin that were written by Christian participants in the Crusades The author focuses on Muslim interactions with the Christian tradition He examines and takes issue with the misguided approach of those Christians and Muslims who in the interests of Christian Muslim rapprochement minimize theological differences between the two faiths especially in the area of Christology Such attempts at rapport he writes do a profound disservice to both religions Illustrating the Muslim view of Christ with Islamic polemical texts from the eleventh to the twenty first centuries the author draws on Hans Urs von Balthasar and other theologians of kenotic Christology to show how Islamic condemnations of divine weakness and neediness can deepen our appreciation of what is most uniquely Christian in our vision of Jesus as God made man who voluntarily experiences weakness suffering and death in solidarity with all human beings Both timely and urgently needed The Crucifix on Mecca s Front Porch invites readers to reflect on the stark differences between Christianity and Islam and to appreciate the uniqueness of the Christian faith
