The Passion Of New Eve Angela Carter, 2015-11-05 Her Imagination was one of the most dazzling this century MARINA WALKER INDEPENDENT The way to Carter's visionary and lurid world THE TIMES The darting lyrical pen of Angela Carter mistress of the erotic picaresque KIRKUS REVIEWS I know nothing I am a tabula rasa a blank sheet of paper an unhatched egg I have not yet become a woman although I possess a woman's shape Not a woman no both more and less than a real woman Now I am a being as mythic and monstrous as Mother herself New York has become the City of Dreadful Night where dissolute Leilah performs a dance of chaos for Evelyn But this young Englishman's fate lies in the arid desert where a many-breasted fertility goddess will wield her scalpel to transform him into the new Eve The Passion of New Eve is an extraordinary journey into the apocalyptic vision of the author Lorna Sage called The boldest of English women writers

The Disobedient Writer Nancy A. Walker, 1995 For centuries women who aspired to write had to enter a largely male literary tradition that offered few if any literary forms in which to express their perspectives on lived experience Since the nineteenth century however women writers and readers have been producing disobedient counter narratives that while clearly making reference to the original texts overturn their basic assumptions This book looks at both canonical and non-canonical works over a variety of fiction and nonfiction genres that offer counter readings of familiar Western narratives Nancy Walker begins by probing women's revisions of two narrative traditions pervasive in Western culture the biblical story of Adam and Eve and the traditional fairy tales that have served as paradigms of women's behavior and expectations She goes on to examine the works of a wide range of writers from contemporaries Marilynne Robinson Ursula Le Guin Anne Sexton Fay Weldon Angela Carter and Margaret Atwood to precursors Caroline Kirkland Fanny Fern Mary De Morgan Mary Louisa Molesworth Edith Nesbit and Evelyn Sharp The Passion of New Eve Angela Carter, 1977 This story follows Evelyn a young Englishman along a journey through mythology and sexuality It is a story of how he learns to be a woman first in the brutal hands of Zero the ragtime Nietzsche then through the ancient Tristessa the beautiful ghost of Hollywood past

The Gothic Fred Botting, 2001 These essays reexamine the literary historical and cultural significance of the Gothic Examples range from Horace Walpole to Angela Carter and the modern television programme The X Files as well as new and more familiar texts Angela Carter and the Fairy Tale Danielle Marie Roemer, Cristina Bacchilega, 2001 A diverse collection of essays artwork interviews and fiction on Angela Carter The Fiction of Rushdie, Barnes, Winterson and Carter Gregory J. Robinson, 2005-08-24 Literature often reflects societal change but it can also effect change by inspiring people to think in new ways Four authors who encourage readers to question traditional boundaries are Salman Rushdie Julian Barnes Jeanette Winterson and Angela Carter This book takes an in depth look at the works of these authors with specific emphasis on how they challenge religion especially in its fundamentalist forms and its intersections with history politics gender and sexuality The study notes both differences and similarities among the four authors whose writings broadly represent the major themes in contemporary British literature Divided into two primary sections the volume first takes a look at Rushdie and Barnes and their stance regarding historical and political issues The second section concentrates on gender and sexuality in the writings of Winterson and Carter Among the works examined are Rushdie's The Satanic Verses and Midnight's Children Barnes' Flaubert's Parrot and A History of the World in 10 1/2 Chapters Winterson's Boating for Beginners and Written on the Body and Carter's The Passion of New Eve and Heroes and Villains The final chapter includes a brief survey of other significant figures in postmodern British literature including Martin Amis Ian McEwan D M Thomas Fay Weldon and Emma Tennant

Angela Carter: Surrealist, Psychologist, Moral Pornographer Scott Dimovitz, 2016-03-02 Contributing to the conversation regarding Angela Carter's problematic relationship with what she viewed as the interrelated traditions of surrealism and psychoanalysis Scott Dimovitz explores the intricate connections between Carter's private life and her public writing He begins with Carter's assertion that it was through her sexual and emotional life that she was radicalized drawing extensively on the British Library's recently archived collection of Carter's private papers journals and letters to show how that radicalization happened and what it meant both for her worldview and for her writings Through close textual analysis and a detailed study of her papers Dimovitz analyzes the ways in which this second wave feminist's explorations of sexuality merged with her investigations into surrealism and psychoanalysis an engagement that ultimately led to the explosively surreal allegories of Carter's later more complex and more accomplished work His study not only offers a new way to view Carter's oeuvre but also makes the case for the importance of Angela Carter's vision in understanding the transformations in feminist thinking from the postwar to the postfeminist generation

Youth Subcultures in Postwar and Contemporary Fiction Nick Bentley, 2025-04-30 This book offers a unique interdisciplinary examination of how youth subcultures have been articulated and constructed in selected fiction from the post war period to the twenty first century It provides a theoretical underpinning for the analysis of subcultures and scenes in literary fiction identifying approaches set against key theories from subcultural studies sociology and criminology as well as paying close attention to issues of literary form genre and narrative technique As well as identifying an overlooked body of work in postwar and contemporary fiction it shows how literary fiction can offer a distinctive contribution to our understanding of youth and marginalized cultures It offers close analysis of a range of novels organized around key themes and contexts including teenagers Teds and jazz scenes in the 1950s Beat writing and the counterculture punk fiction dystopian and cyberpunk fiction as well as the examination of works that foreground class race gender and sexuality

Does It Really Mean That? Interpreting the Literary Ambiguous Janka Kaščáková, Janka Kaščáková, 2011-01-18 However disconnected the essays in the volume might appear to be at first glance the unifying factor is the very notion of ambiguity which is one of the essential features of the postmodern age how it can be defined as opposed to what it means or is where it can be found to what purposes it can be put including questions of whether it is a positive or negative factor But this of course is not a new phenomenon Writers have always depended on equivocation multiplicity of meaning uncertainty of meaning deliberate mystification one might say Language itself is the base of ambiguity not only in literature but in everyday public discourse Thus the papers in the volume should appeal not only to scholars working in the fields of modern or postmodern literature but those who see the importance of ambiguity in the earlier texts and perhaps their influences in later writing Finally the essays included here not only provide specific analyses and proposed solutions for specific works or authors they also open the reader to other appearances of ambiguity often not simply in literature or critical theory but in the kinds of social issues the literary works deals with

The Move Beyond Form M. Hughes, 2013-03-12 Fictional narratives of the late twentieth century often cross boundaries This study argues that the undoing of structure in postmodern art form demands a different way of thinking and represents a commentary on the material and social conditions of the late twentieth century and beyond

Angela Carter Aidan Day, 1998-06-15 The first full scale study of Angela Carter's fiction with a broad though scholarly appeal

Tactical Readings Nicola Pitchford, 2002 Both writers novels borrow heavily from other authors and in doing so they offer strategies for a politically committed rereading of literary history and its interaction with the popular imagination

R|EVOLUTIONS Jennifer Craig, Warren Steele, 2009-03-26 Can art change the world Or can art produce new knowledge that facilitates radical change in our slowly evolving communities If so then we must ask How does cultural transformation whether super or slight affect our understanding of culture and the world Operating under the rubric of resistance and reform R EVOLUTIONS Mapping Culture Community and Change is a unique scholarly collection that seeks to illuminate current understandings of art aesthetics and the revolutionary impulse The resulting work interrogates intersections between culture and community revolution and evolution At the same time it examines how enduring social issues intertwine with current concerns such as representations of the body or the book Multidisciplinary in approach topics run from subversive uses of the body in Renaissance drama to the effect of the atom bomb on postmodern culture From Mark Wallinger's Turner Prize winning performance in a bear suit to Angela Carter's concept of sexual multiplicity in The Passion of New Eve Cutting edge and politically engaging R Evolutions will appeal to general readers as well as the specialist and it is designed for scholars not only interested in issues of cultural production but also in the evolution of politics and perception over time      Cross-Gendered Literary Voices R. Kim, C. Westall, 2012-05-21 This book investigates male writers use of female voices and female writers use of male voices in literature and theatre from the 1850s to the present examining where how and why such gendered crossings occur and what connections may be found between these crossings and specific psychological social historical and political contexts      Angela Carter and Surrealism Anna Watz, 2016-07-15 In 1972 Angela Carter translated Xavi re Gauthier s ground breaking feminist critique of the surrealist movement Surr alisme et sexualit 1971 Although the translation was never published the project at once confirmed and consolidated Carter s previous interest in surrealism representation gender and desire and aided her formulation of a new surrealist feminist aesthetic Carter s sustained engagement with surrealist aesthetics and politics as well as surrealist scholarship aptly demonstrates what is at stake for feminism at the intersection of avant garde aesthetics and the representation of women and female desire Drawing on previously unexplored archival material such as typescripts journals and letters Anna Watz s study is the first to trace the full extent to which Carter s writing was influenced by the surrealist movement and its critical heritage Watz s book is an important contribution to scholarship on Angela Carter as well as to contemporary feminist debates on surrealism and will appeal to scholars across the fields of contemporary British fiction feminism and literary and visual surrealism
