The Pastors Bible Study A New Interpreters Bible Study Resource:

The New Interpreter's® Bible One-Volume Commentary Prof. Beverly Roberts Gaventa, David L.

Petersen, 2010-10-01 Pastors and students who want a one volume commentary to complement the New Interpreter's Study Bible will be pleased to find in this resource the quality of scholarship that is a hallmark of other New Interpreter's Bible resources. The portability, accessibility, and affordability of the one volume commentary will appeal to professors and students as well as lay persons and pastors. This commentary contains articles on all the books of the Bible including the Apocrypha as well as numerous general articles on biblical interpretation, geographical and historical setting, religion, text, canon, translation, Bible, and preaching, teaching with bibliographies for each article. Extra value includes chronology, timeline, table of measures and money, and a subject index. Old Testament Editor Dr. David L. Petersen, Franklin Nutting Parker Professor of Old Testament, Emory University. Professor Petersen's current research focuses on the book of Genesis and on prophetic literature. An ordained Presbyterian minister, Dr. Petersen has written, coauthored, or coedited a number of scholarly and popular books and articles. He was the senior Old Testament editor for The New Interpreter's Bible. Professor Petersen is a past president of the Society of Biblical Literature. New Testament Editor Dr. Beverly Roberts Gaventa, Helen H. P. Manson Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis, Princeton Theological Seminary. Dr. Gaventa's specialties within the field of New Testament are the letters of Paul and Luke. Acts is widely published. She is a member of the advisory board for the New Testament Library, a new commentary series for Westminster John Knox Press, editor of the Society of Biblical Literature's Resources for Biblical Studies, and a member of the editorial board of its Journal of Biblical Literature and associate editor of the Catholic Biblical Quarterly. The New Interpreter's Study Bible Walter J. Harrelson, 2003 In a new study Bible based on The New Revised Standard Version with Apocrypha, 60 scholars provide background and insight on the biblical text in a book that features extensive historical and theological annotations, brief introductions and outlines for each biblical book, 19 newly commissioned historical maps, and more. Renewing New Testament Christology Leander E. Keck, 2023-10-10 Advocating New Testament Christology as a historically informed theological enterprise readily suggests the book's two part structure. The treatment of the four Christologies in Part Two is warranted by the arguments in Part One whose first chapter neither surveys nor summarizes the history of research but instead presents a historically informed argument about the impact of history on Christology. The second chapter provides a crisp formal statement of Christology's task as the clue to its nature. Christology's logic, its reasoning, is especially important for it accounts for the way Jesus's religious significance is grounded in his relation to God. In Part Two, the approach outlined in the second chapter of Part One is applied to two Gospels, Matthew and John, and two Epistles, Romans and Hebrews. These four chapters can be read in any sequence because their order is not part of the argument. Simply juxtaposing these chapters allows each voice to be heard in its own register. Part Two shuns talking of New Testament Christology's unity, sometimes a mischievous word without thereby doubting that the New Testament's diverse Christologies also share certain ways of thinking expressed in differing words
