the Land of a Million Elephants Joseph D. Celleski,2020-01-10 The untold story of US Special Forces in Laos one of the longest secret wars of the Cold War by a military historian and Special Forces veteran The Secret War in Laos was one of the first long wars fought by US Special Forces spanning a period of about thirteen years It was one of the largest CIA paramilitary operations of the time kept out of the view of the American public until now Between 1959 and 1974 Green Berets were covertly deployed to Laos during the Laotian Civil War to prevent the Communist Pathet Lao from taking over the country Operators disguised as civilians and answering only to Mister were delivered to the country by Air America where they reported to the US Ambassador With limited resources they faced a country in chaos Maps had large blank areas and essential supplies often didn t arrive at all In challenging tropical conditions they trained and undertook combat advisory duties with the Royal Lao Government Shrouded in secrecy until the 1990s this was one of the first major applications of special warfare doctrine Now the story is comprehensively told for the first time using official archival documents and interviews with veterans Laos: Beyond the Revolution Joseph J. Zasloff,Leonard Unger,1991-06-18 This work contains papers presented at a conference called Current Developments in Laos in Washington DC in 1988 The topics covered range from Lao nationalism and American policy 1954 1959 to Laotian refugees in Thailand The Second Indochina War William

S Turley,2019-07-11 In the United States discussion of the Vietnam War has tended to focus on the U S role U S strategy U S diplomacy and the war s effects on American society The tendency to hold U S domestic politics responsible for the war s outcome implies that events in Indochina were nothing more than a backdrop for an essentially American drama In contrast The Second Indochina War emphasizes the Vietnamese dimensions of a conflict in which all of Indochina Vietnam Laos and Cambodia was treated as a single strategic unit The author contends that only from this perspective is it clear how the war began why its scale outstripped U S expectations and why the Communists prevailed Professor Turley gives a balanced account of events in and views from Washington Saigon and Hanoi Drawing on years of research in primary documents and interviews conducted by the author in Saigon and Hanoi the book focuses on the experience strategies leadership and internal politics of the revolutionary side To set the scene the author considers the legacies of colonial rule in Indochina and the origins of the U S commitment there He recounts the development of the Saigon regime and explains the bases of revolution in the South the key communist decisions and the North s response to bombing The major military campaigns are clearly described and analyzed as are the negotiations that led to the Paris Agreement and its aftermath Vietnam is the central focus but the reader s attention is also drawn to the strategies and events that unified the conflict in all three countries of Indochina into a single war Concise yet comprehensive The Second Indochina War is suitable for the general reader as a text for courses on the war or as supplementary reading for courses on Southeast Asian politics U S foreign policy revolutionary conflict and Asian regional security An annotated bibliography and chronology enhance its usefulness Original material on communist internal debates and military campaigns based on primary documents in Vietnamese will also make this book a valuable resource for scholars of Southeast Asia

Confronting Vietnam Ilya V. Gaiduk, 2003 Based on extensive research in the Russian archives this book examines the Soviet approach to the Vietnam conflict between the 1954 Geneva conference on Indochina and late 1963 when the overthrow of the South Vietnamese president Ngo Dinh Diem and the assassination of John F Kennedy radically transformed the conflict The author finds that the USSR attributed no geostrategic importance to Indochina and did not want the crisis there to disrupt détente The Russians had high hopes that the Geneva accords would bring years of peace in the region Gradually disillusioned they tried to strengthen North Vietnam but would not support unification of North and South By the early 1960s however they felt obliged to counter the American embrace of an aggressively anti Communist regime in South Vietnam and the hostility of its former ally the People s Republic of China Finally Moscow decided to disengage from Vietnam disappointed that its efforts to avert an international crisis there had failed

Fields, Forest, And Family Carol Ireson, 2018-02-19 After the Vietnam War socialist governments ascended to power in all the countries of the former Indochina In Laos more than a decade of socialist reorganization was followed by economic liberalization in the late 1980s Laotian women had traditionally sustained the household and local economy with their work in field forest and family but political and economic changes markedly affected the context of rural women s prevailing sources of power and subordination Socialist policies for example curtailed women s commercial activities while recognizing women s work in agriculture and child care In this richly detailed volume Carol Ireson draws on ten years of fieldwork and research to explore this metamorphosis among Laotian women Throughout she poses questions such as What has happened to women s traditional sources of control over their own and others activities since the 1975 socialist revolution Have their traditional sources of power or autonomy expanded or contracted as changing conditions have allowed other groups to appropriate women s traditional resources and roles Have the dramatic changes had different effects on rural women of differing ethnic backgrounds and varying economic means Focusing on women from three major ethnic groups the lowland Lao the Khmu and the Hmong Ireson examines the different ways they have responded to political and economic changes She shows us that the Laotian experience reveals in microcosm the processes of change toward specialization and integration of women s work into national and global economies and explains how this shift deeply affects women s lives Background Notes, Laos ,1979 Strategic Digest ,1976 Milton Leitenberg: Pioneering Work on Weapons of Mass Destruction, Wars and Arms Control Kathleen Margaret Vogel,Nicole Janice Ball,Milton Leitenberg,2025-09-26 This book is a collection of 44 representative publications and papers by Milton Leitenberg It allows publications that appeared in journals and books as well as unpublished work prepared for national and international organizations to appear in one place This makes them accessible to researchers for years and decades to come These studies made substantial contributions to the area of arms control particularly on the subjects of nuclear weapons wars and conflicts Soviet military studies biological weapons and other related international security areas all of which are of continued interest to security studies and political science audiences The primary audience is academics and practitioners in the arms control security studies and peace research fields The book is useful for graduate studies in arms control and peace research There is no similar book to this collection 1974 Annual Supplement Joan Schmitz Bergholt,2013-12-21
