Parties as Governments in Eurasia, 1913-1991 Ivan Sablin, Egas Moniz Bandeira, 2022-08-15 This book examines the political parties which emerged on the territories of the former Ottoman Qing Russian and Habsburg empires and not only took over government power but merged with government itself It discusses how these parties disillusioned with previous constitutional and parliamentary reforms justified their takeovers with programs of controlled or supervised economic and social development including acting as the mediators between the various social and ethnic groups in the respective territories It pays special attention to nation building through the party to institutions both constitutional and de facto and to the global and comparative aspects of one party regimes It explores the origins of one party regimes in China Czechoslovakia Korea the Soviet Union Turkey Yugoslavia and beyond the roles of socialism and nationalism in the parties approaches to development and state building as well the pedagogical aspirations of the ruling elites Hence by revisiting the dynamics of the transition from the earlier imperial formations via constitutionalism to one party governments and by assessing the internal and external dynamics of one party regimes after their establishment the book more precisely locates this type of regime within the contemporary world's political landscape Moreover it emphasises that one party regimes thrived on both sides of the Cold War and in some of the non aligned states and that although some state socialist one party regimes collapsed in 1989 1991 in other places historically dominant parties and new parties have continued to monopolize political power The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

In the Shadows of Albania-China Relations (1960-1978) Enver Bytyçi, 2022-02-21 This book is a study of Albania China relations during the second half of the 20th century Both countries have had a similar political system based on the same ideology for more than two decades Indeed they established an alliance that is unique of its kind keeping in mind that such friendly relations were created between a small country with a population of 2.3 million Albania and a very large country with a population of 700 million China. The book details unique characteristics of this alliance highlighting that this interesting relationship is based on specific interests. It shows how this alliance has unfolded from its initial optimism to the later sworn animosity between the two countries. The outcome of the relationship between Tirana and Beijing had its climax at the end of 1960s which saw in a major crack in the alliance due to China's newly established affinity with the USA.
