The Pearl Of Asia:

The Pearl of Asia Jacob T. Child, 1892 The Cyclopædia of India and of Eastern and Southern Asia Edward Balfour, 1885 Poems. The light of Asia. Pearls of the faith. The song celestial Sir Edwin Arnold, 1889 Water Histories of South Asia Sugata Ray, Venugopal Maddipati, 2019-06-10 This book surveys the intersections between water systems and the phenomenology of visual cultures in early modern colonial and contemporary South Asia Bringing together contributions by eminent artists architects curators and scholars who explore the connections between the environmental and the cultural the volume situates water in an expansive relational domain It covers disciplines as diverse as literary studies environmental humanities sustainable design urban planning and media studies The chapters explore the ways in which material cultures of water generate technological and aesthetic acts of envisioning geographies and make an intervention within political social and cultural discourses A critical interjection in the sociologies of water in the subcontinent the book brings art history into conversation with current debates on climate change by examining water s artistic architectural engineering religious scientific and environmental facets from the 16th century to the present This is one of the first books on South Asia s art architecture and visual history to interweave the ecological with the aesthetic under the emerging field of eco art history The volume will be of interest to scholars and general readers of art history Islamic studies South Asian studies urban studies architecture geography history and environmental studies It will also appeal to activists curators art critics and those interested in water management The Environment in Asia Pacific Harbours Eric Wolanski, 2006-01-18 Urbanization has reached unprecedented levels in the estuarine and coastal zone particularly in the Asia Pacific region where mega cities and mega harbours are still growing This book demonstrates the different solutions and pitfalls successes and failures in a large number of ports and harbours in the Asia Pacific Region and shows how science can provide ecologically sustainable solutions that apply wherever the growth of mega harbours occurs Abolition and Its Aftermath in the Indian Ocean Africa and Asia Gwyn Campbell, 2013-01-11 This important collection of essays examines the history and impact of the abolition of the slave trade and slavery in the Indian Ocean World a region stretching from Southern and Eastern Africa to the Middle East India Southeast Asia and the Far East Slavery studies have traditionally concentrated on the Atlantic slave trade and slavery in the Americas In comparison the Indian Ocean World slave trade has been little explored although it started some 3 500 years before the Atlantic slave trade and persists to the present day This volume which follows a collection of essays The Structure of Slavery in Indian Ocean Africa and Asia Frank Cass 2004 examines the various abolitionist impulses indigenous and European in the Indian Ocean World during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries It assesses their efficacy within a context of a growing demand for labour resulting from an expanding international economy and European colonisation The essays show that in applying definitions of slavery derived from the American model European agents in the region failed to detect or deliberately ignored other forms of slavery and as a result the abolitionist impulse was only partly successful with the slave trade still continuing today in many parts of the Indian Ocean World

Cyclopædia of India and of Eastern and Southern Asia, Commercial, Industrial and Scientific Edward Balfour, 1871 Nature, Culture and Religion at the Crossroads of Asia Marie Lecomte-Tilouine, 2017-08-03 This book explores how ethnic groups living in the Himalayan regions understand nature and culture The first part addresses the opposition between nature and culture in Asia's major religious traditions such as Hinduism Buddhism Islam and Shamanism The second part brings together specialists of different representative groups living in the heterogeneous Himalayan region They examine how these indigenous groups perceive their world This includes understanding their mythic past in particular the place of animals and spirits in the world of humans as they see it and the role of ritual in the everyday lives of these people The book takes into account how these various perceptions of the Himalayan peoples are shaped by a globalized world The volume thus provides new ways of viewing the relationship between humans and their environment

Urban Transformational Landscapes in the City-Hinterlands of Asia Debnath Mookherjee, George M. Pomeroy, Le Thi Thu Huong, 2023-05-16 In the context of mounting challenges stemming from a rapid transformation of the urban regional landscapes in many Asian countries this book highlights a multifaceted array of issues that increasingly engage the academic and planning communities in search of viable solutions to complex problems facing us Even though cities continue to dominate development studies urbanization of Asia is evolving toward a hybrid urban rural nexus beyond the cities This volume considers these shifting dynamics of Asian urbanization including urban spatial transformations and their ramifications in the context of sustainability and planning Through the lens of a set of empirical studies across diverse disciplines geographies and methodologies yet with an overarching concern for sustainability in varied but interconnected areas such as climate change land use planning infrastructure and urban mobility and quality of life these studies examine a range of important topics e g flooding transportation housing open space green space urban garden and such in city regional settings Together they add insights into varied transformational processes or patterns at work on the urban regional landscapes in a number of Asian countries while offering innovative approaches or alternatives The proposed volume fills a gap in urban regional studies in context of South and Southeast Asia that will be of interest to all stakeholders e g planners administrators academicians and the citizenry particularly those interested in sustainability and planning paradigms It should be a timely and valuable addition to the Asian urbanization literature The Cyclopaedia of India and of Eastern and Southern Asia Edward Balfour,1885

History Textbooks and the Wars in Asia Gi-Wook Shin, Daniel C. Snider, 2011-02-08 Over the past fifteen years Northeast Asia has witnessed growing intraregional exchanges and interactions especially in the realms of culture and economy Still the region cannot escape from the burden of history This book examines the formation of historical memory in four Northeast Asian societies China Japan South Korea and Taiwan and the United States focusing on the period from the beginning of the Sino Japanese war in 1931 until the formal conclusion of the Pacific War with the San Francisco Peace Treaty of 1951 The contributors analyse the recent efforts of Korean Japanese and Chinese scholars to write a common history of Northeast Asia and question the underlying motivations for their efforts and subsequent achievements In doing so they contend that the greatest obstacle to reconciliation in Northeast Asia lies in the existence of divided and often conflicting historical memories The book argues that a more fruitful approach lies in understanding how historical memory has evolved in each country and been incorporated into respective master narratives Through uncovering the existence of different master narratives it is hoped citizens will develop a more self critical self reflective approach to their own history and that such an introspective effort has the potential to lay the foundation for greater self and mutual understanding and eventual historical reconciliation in the region This book will be essential reading for students and scholars of Asian history Asian education and international relations in East Asia
