The Penis Chronicles Comedy For The Relationship Challenged:

Contested Selves Katja Herges, Elisabeth Krimmer, 2021 Investigates the field of German life writing from Rahel Levin Varnhagen around 1800 to Carmen Sylva a century later from D blin Becher women s WWII diaries German Jewish memoirs and East German women s interview literature to the autofiction of Lena Gorelik The B Word Maria San Filippo, 2013-04-12 Often disguised in public discourse by terms like gay homoerotic homosocial or queer bisexuality is strangely absent from queer studies and virtually untreated in film and media criticism Maria San Filippo aims to explore the central role bisexuality plays in contemporary screen culture establishing its importance in representation marketing and spectatorship By examining a variety of media genres including art cinema sexploitation cinema and vampire films bromances and series television San Filippo discovers missed moments where bisexual readings of these texts reveal a more malleable notion of subjectivity and eroticism San Filippo s work moves beyond the subject of heteronormativity and responds to compulsory monosexuality where it s not necessarily a couple s gender that is at issue but rather that an individual chooses one or the other The B Word transcends dominant relational formation gay straight or otherwise and brings a discursive voice to the field of queer and film studies The Postmodern Humanism of Philip K. Dick Jason P.

Vest, 2009-02-17 In The Postmodern Humanism of Philip K Dick Jason Vest examines how Dick adapted the conventions of science fiction and postmodernism to reflect humanist concerns about the difficulties of maintaining identity agency and autonomy in the latter half of the 20th century Vest also explores Dick s literary relationship to Franz Kafka Jorge Luis Borges and Italo Calvino Chronicles, 1987 Stellar Transformations Steven Rybin, 2022-01-14 Stellar

Transformations Movie Stars of the 2010s circles around questions of stardom performance and their cultural contexts in ways that remind us of the alluring magic of stars while also bringing to the fore the changing ways in which viewers engaged with them during the last decade A salient idea that guides much of the collection is the one of transformation expressed in these pages as the way in which post millennial movie stars are in one way or another reshaping ideas of performance and star presence either through the self conscious revision of aspects of their own personas or in redirecting or progressing some earlier aspect of the culture Including a diverse lineup of stars such as Oscar Isaac Kristen Stewart Tilda Swinton and Tyler Perry the chapters in Stellar Transformations paint the portrait of the meaning of star images during the complex decade of the 2010s and in doing so will offer useful case studies for scholars and students engaged in the study of stardom celebrity and performance in cinema TLA Film, Video, and DVD Guide 2002-2003 David Bleiler, 2001-11-03 A film video and DVD guide for the true lover of the cinema this volume focuses on independent and international films as well as the best of the mainstream 450 photos throughout The Social Model of Disability in India Ranjita Dawn, 2021-05-27 This book presents various paradigms and debates on the diverse issues concerning disability in India from a sociological perspective It studies disability in the context of its relationship with concepts such as culture religion media literature and gender to address the inherent failures in challenging prevalent stereotypical and oppressive ideologies. It traces the theological history of disability and studies the present day universalized social notions of disablement. The volume challenges the predominant perception of disability being only a medical or biological concern and provides deeper insight into the impact of representation through an analysis of the discourse and criteria for normalcy in films from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. It analyzes the formation of perspectives through a study of representation of disability in print media especially children's literature, comics and graphic novels. The author also discusses the policies and provisions available in India for students with disabilities especially women who have to also contend with gender inequality and gender based discrimination. The book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of disability studies, educational psychology, special education, sociology, gender studies, politics of education and media ecology. It will also be useful for educationalists, NGOs, special educators, disability specialists, media and communication professionals and counsellors. Screens Fade to Black David J. Leonard, 2006-06-30. The triple crown of Oscars awarded to Denzel Washington, Halle Berry and Sidney Poitier on a single evening in 2002 seemed to mark a turning point for African Americans in cinema. Certainly it was hyped as such by the media eager to overlook the nuances of this sudden embrace. In this new study, author David Leonard uses this event as a jumping off point from which to discuss the current state of African American cinema and the various genres that currently compose it. Looking at such recent films as Love and Basketball, Antwone Fisher, Training Day and the two Barbershop films, all of which were directed by black artists and most of which starred and were written by blacks as well, Leonard examines the issues of representation and opportunity in contemporary cinema. In many cases, these films which walk a line between confronting racial stereotypes and trafficking in them, made a great deal of money while hardly playing to white audiences at all. By examining the ways in which they address the American Dream, racial progress, racial difference, blackness, whiteness, class, capitalism and a host of other issues, Leonard shows that while certainly there are differences between the grotesque images of years past and those that define today's era, the consistency of images across genre and time reflects the lasting power of racism as well as the black community's response to it. TV Guide, 2006. Stephen Sondheim and Andrew Lloyd Webber Stephen Citron, 2001-09-13. The New York Times called Stephen Sondheim the greatest and perhaps best known artist in the American musical theater while two months earlier the same paper referred to his contemporary Andrew Lloyd Webber as the most commercially successful composer in history. Whatever their individual achievements might be, it is agreed by most critics that these two colossi have dominated world musical theater for the last quarter century and hold the key to the direction the musical stage will take in the future. Here in the third volume of Stephen Citron's distinguished series The Great Songwriters, in depth studies that illuminated the musical contributions, careers and lives of Noel Coward and Cole Porter, Noel Cole, The Sophisticates and Oscar Hammerstein 2nd and Alan Jay Lerner, The Wordsmiths, this eminent musicologist has taken on our two leading contemporary contributors to the lyric stage.

His aim has not been to compare or judge one's merits over the other but to make the reader discover through their works and those of their contemporaries the changes and path of that glorious artform we call Musical Theater. In his quest Citron offers unique insight into each artist's working methods, analyzing their scores including their early works and works in progress. As in Citron's previously critically acclaimed books in this series, great significance is given to the impact their youthful training and private lives have had upon their amazing creative output. Beginning with Sondheim's lyrics-only works West Side Story, Gypsy, Do I Hear a Waltz? through his scores for Saturday Night, Company, Anyone Can Whistle, Follies, Pacific Overtures, A Little Night Music, Sweeney Todd, Merrily We Roll Along, Sunday in the Park, Into the Woods, Assassins, and Passion, all these milestones of musical theater have been explored. Lloyd Webber's musical contribution from his early works The Likes of Us and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat to Jesus Christ Superstar, Evita, Cats, Starlight Express, Aspects of Love, By Jeeves, The Phantom of the Opera, Song + Dance, Massenet, Sunset Boulevard to Whistle Down the Wind are also thoroughly analyzed. The works of these two splendid artists are clarified for the casual or professional reader in context with their contemporaries. Complete with a quadruple chronology: Sondheim, Lloyd Webber, US Theater, British Theater, copious quotations from their works, and many never before published illustrations, the future of the artform that is the crowning achievement of the 20th century is made eminently clear in this book. Sondheim, Lloyd Webber is a must read for anyone interested in the contemporary theater.
