The People of Wheelbarrow Lane Sewell, William Gawan, 1971 The People of Wheelbarrow Lane; with Illustrations by Yü Tse-tan William Gawan SEWELL, 1970 The Teahouse Di Wang, 2008 This study examines economic social political and cultural changes as funneled through the teahouses of Chengdu during the first half of the twentieth century Street Culture in Chengdu Di Wang, 2003 A study of the lively street culture in Chengdu from 1870 to 1930 this book explores the relationship between urban commoners and public space the role of community and neighborhood in public life and how the reform movement and Republican revolution transformed everyday life in this inland city The People of Wheelbarrow Lane [by] William G. Sewell William Gawan Sewell, 1970 Daily Lives of Civilians in Wartime Asia Stewart Lone, 2007-01-30 In this detailed account of civilian lives during wartime in Asia high school students undergrads and general readers alike can get a glimpse into the often dismal but surprisingly resilient lives led by ordinary people those who did not go off to war but were powerfully affected by it nonetheless How did people live on a day to day basis with the cruelty and horror of war right outside their doorsteps What were the reactions and views of those who did not fight on the fields How did people come together to cope with the losses of loved ones and the sacrifices they had to make on a daily basis This volume contains accounts from the resilient civilians who lived in Asia during the Taiping and Nian Rebellions the Philippine Revolution the Wars of Meiji Japan World War II the Korean War and the Vietnam War This volume begins with R G Tiedemann s account of life in China in the mid nineteenth century during the Taiping and Nian Rebellions Tiedemann examines social practices imposed on the civilians by the Taiping life in the cities and country women and the militarization of society Bernardita Reyes Churchill examines how civilians in the Philippines struggled for freedom under the imperial reign Spain and the United States at the turn of the twentieth century Stewart Lone looks at how Meiji Japan s wars on the Asian continent affected the lives and routines of men women and children urban and rural He also explains how the media played a role during the wars as well as how people were able to spend leisure time and even make wartime humor Di Wang uses the public space of the teahouse and its culture as a microcosm of daily life in China during tumultuous years of civil and world war 1937 1949 Simon Partner explores Japanese daily life during World War II investigating youth culture the ways people came together and how the government took control of their lives by rationing food clothing and other resources Shigeru Sato continues by examining the harshness of life in Indonesia during World War II and its aftermath Korean life from 1950 1953 is looked at by Andrei Lankov who takes a look at the heart rending lives of refugees Finally Lone surveys life in South Vietnam from 1965 1975 from school children to youth protests to how propaganda affected civilians This volume offers students and general readers a glimpse into the lives of those often forgotten Urban Life in Contemporary China Martin King Whyte, William L. Parish, 1985-11-15 Through interviews with city residents Martin King Whyte and William L Parish provide a unique survey of urban life in the last decade of Mao Zedong s rule They conclude that changes in society produced under communism were truly revolutionary and that in the decade under scrutiny the Chinese avoided ostensibly universal evils of urbanism with considerable success At the same time however they find that this successful effort spawned new and equally serious urban problems bureaucratic rigidity low production and more Broadsheet, 1979 Westerners in China Foster Stockwell, 2015-10-03 Today the doors of China are opening to foreign investment and trade as never before but the history of contact between China and the West goes back many centuries Goods from China were being traded in Rome long before the birth of Christ transported over the famous silk road that crossed Mongolia and Russia But not until the mid fifteenth century when Marco Polo published his account of his travels did China really capture the European imagination Subsequent centuries saw missionary trips to China by Franciscans and Jesuits a European craze for Chinese silk and porcelain European visits to Tibet the infamous Opium War between Britain and China and further instances of contact commerce and conflict China has shown amazing economic growth since 1949 and today it has set ambitious goals for growth in trade and technology This book traces the history of Western exploration in and trade with China It follows the events outlined above and touches on many other highlights including exploration by the Russian Nikolay Przhevalsky who traveled deep into China and today is largely remembered for the horse he discovered and identified there the travels of nineteenth century women explorers in China American Roy Chapman s discovery of the first fossilized dinosaur eggs in the Gobi Desert and the competition between two American explorers to be the first to capture a live panda Also included are a chronology of Chinese history and a pronunciation guide Opening Argument of John H.
