Moving Archives Linda M. Morra, 2020-01-15 The image of the dusty undisturbed archive has been swept away in response to growing interest across disciplines in the materials they house and the desire to find and make meaning through an engagement with those materials Archival studies scholars and archivists are developing related theoretical frameworks and practices that recognize that the archives are anything but static Archival deposits are proliferating and the architects practitioners and scholars engaged with them are scarcely able to keep abreast of them Archives archival theory and archival practice are on the move But what of the archives that were once safely housed and have since been lost or are under threat What of the urgency that underscores the appeals made on behalf of these archives As scholars in this volume argue archives their materialization their preservation and the research produced about them are moving in a different way they are involved in an emotionally engaged and charged process one that acts equally upon archival subjects and those engaged with them So too do archives at once represent members of various communities and the fields of study drawn to them Moving Archives grounds itself in the critical trajectory related to what Sara Ahmed calls affective economies to offer fresh insights about the process of archiving and approaching literary materials These economies are not necessarily determined by ethical impulses although many scholars have called out for such impulses to underwrite current archival practices rather they form the crucial affective contexts for the legitimization of archival caches in the present moment and for future use Children's Book Prizes Ruth Allen, 2019-01-22 First published in 1998 this book is the first comprehensive survey of the awards made to children s books in the English speaking world The Volume covers nearly forty different prizes including well known and established ones such as the Newbury Award prizes instigated by the commercial sector such as the Smarties Prize as well as nationally sponsored awards and prizes for illustrators Detailed lists are provided of the winning titles and where appropriate the runners up in each year that the award has been given Ruth Allen also presents some fascinating and often entertaining insights into the motivations behind awards and how they are views by authors illustrators publishers librarians booksellers and potential purchasers The various criteria applied by judges of these awards are also examined with an assessment of whether they have always achieved the right result This Volume is both a useful guide for adults wishing to buy good books for children and an important tool for those researching the history of the children s book industry UNBORED Adventure

Joshua Glenn, Elizabeth Foy Larsen, 2015-10-06 It's a book It's a guide It's a way of life The exciting new book in the acclaimed bestselling award winning UNBORED series Here comes UNBORED Adventure Blue Willow Doris Gates, 1976-09-30 To Janey Larkin the blue willow plate was the most beautiful thing in her life a symbol of the home she could only dimly remember Now that her father was an itinerant worker Janey didn't have a home she could call her own or any real friends as her family had to keep moving following the crops from farm to farm Someday Janey promised the willow plate with its picture of a real house her family would once again be able to set down roots in a community Blue Willow is an important fictional account of the Dust Bowl and the Great Depression and has been called The Grapes of Wrath for children It won a Newbery Honor and many other awards Quick and Popular Reads for Teens Pam Spencer Holley, 2009 Compiles and annotates YALSA's Popular Paperbacks for Young Adults and Quick Picks for Reluctant Readers Includes theme lists Literature Connections to World History K6 Lynda G.
