The Hungarian Workers Councils In 1956:

Hungarian Workers' Councils in 1956 ,1990 From the preeminent writer of Taiwanese nativist fiction and the leading translator of Chinese literature come these poignant accounts of everyday life in rural and small town Taiwan Huang is frequently cited as one of the most original and gifted storytellers in the Chinese language and these selections reveal his genius In The Two Sign Painters TV reporters ambush two young workers from the country taking a break atop a twenty four story building His Son's Big Doll introduces the tortured soul inside a walking advertisement and in Xiaoqi's Cap a dissatisfied pressure cooker salesman is fascinated by a young schoolgirl Huang's characters generally the uneducated and disadvantaged who must cope with assaults on their traditionalism hostility from their urban brethren and of course the debilitating effects of poverty come to life in all their human uniqueness free from idealization Imre Nagy, Martyr of the Nation Karl P. Benziger,2008-04-28 Imre Nagy is a compelling figure both in life and in death_one whose actions stimulated consequences in Hungary that continue into the present Providing a summary review of Hungarian Cold War history Benziger examines the ways in which the memory of the martyred prime minister and the story of the 1956 Revolution influenced political socialization in Hungary The book begins with Nagy's 1989 funeral and the role memorialization played in the politics of transition continuing with a review of the important personages and events that informed Nagy's life and afterlife and it concludes in the tumultuous politics following the establishment of the Republic in 1989 Readers interested in Central and Eastern Europe will find this book useful as it expands the literature on history and memory and transition politics in the region Freedom and Dissatisfaction in the Works of Agnes Heller Lucy Jane Ward,2016-12-27 Ward's book focuses on the work of the Hungarian philosopher Agnes Heller prominent member of the Budapest School a group of students who studied under the Marxist social theorist György Lukács For both Marx and Heller albeit in different ways dissatisfaction emerges as the inevitable result of the expansion of needs within modernity and as a catalyst for the development of anthropological wealth what Marx refers to as the human being rich in need Ward argues that dissatisfaction and the corresponding category of human wealth as both motif and method is central to grasping Heller's seemingly disparate writings While Marx postulates a radical overcoming of dissatisfaction Heller argues dissatisfaction is integral not only to the on going survival of modernity but also to the dynamics of both freedom and individual life In this way Heller's work remains committed to a position that both continually returns and departs is both with and against the philosophy of Marx This book will be of interest to scholars of political philosophy social theory critical theory and sociology report of the special committee on the problem of hungary ,1957 Eastern European Capitalism in the Making Elena A. Iankova,2002-09-09 Publisher Description A Nation Divided by History and Memory Gábor Gyáni,2020-07-12 During the last few decades there has been a growing recognition of the great role that remembering and collective memory play in forming the historical awareness In addition the dominant national form of history writing also met some challenges on the side of a transnational approach to the past In A Nation Divided by History and Memory a prominent Hungarian historian sheds light on how Hungary's historical image has become split as a consequence of the differences between the historian's conceptualisation of national history and its diverse representations in personal and collective memory The book focuses on the shocking experiences and the intense memorial reactions generated by a few key historical events and the way in which they have been interpreted by the historical scholarship The argument of A Nation Divided by History and Memory is placed into the context of an international historical discourse This pioneering work is essential and enlightening reading for all historians many sociologists political scientists social psychologists and university students

A History of Eastern Europe Robert Bideleux, Ian Jeffries, 2006-04-10 A History of Eastern Europe Crisis and Change is a wide ranging single volume history of the lands between the lands which have lain between Germany Italy and the Tsarist and Soviet empires Bideleux and Jeffries examine the problems that have bedevilled this troubled region during its imperial past the interwar period under fascism under communism and since 1989 While mainly focusing on the modern era and on the effects of ethnic nationalism fascism and communism the book also offers original striking and revisionist coverage of ancient and medieval times the Hussite Revolution the Renaissance the Reformation and the Counter Reformation the legacies of Byzantium the Ottoman Empire and the Hapsburg Empire the rise and decline of the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth the impact of the region's powerful Russian and Germanic neighbours rival concepts of Central and Eastern Europe the 1920s land reforms and the 1930s Depression Providing a thematic historical survey and analysis of the formative processes of change which have played the paramount roles in shaping the development of the region A History of Eastern Europe itself will play a paramount role in the studies of European historians

Democracy, Dialectics, and Difference Brian C. Lovato, 2015-12-07 It has been nearly two centuries since Marx famously turned Hegel on his head in order to repurpose dialectics as a revolutionary way of thinking about the internal contradictions of our social relations Despite critiques from post structuralists post colonialists and others there has been a resurgence of dialectical thought among political theorists as of late This resurgence has coincided with a rise in the mention of words like class warfare socialism and communism among the general public on the streets of Seattle in 1999 in Cairo's Tahrir Square in the actions of the Greek anarchists and the Spanish indignados and in the rallying cry of we are the 99% of the Occupy Movement and in academia This book explores how it is that dialectical thought might respond to the critiques brought forth by those on the left who are critical of Marxism's universalizing and authoritarian legacy Brian C Lovato singles out Ernesto Laclau and Chantal Mouffe as the key interlocutors in this ongoing conversation between Marxism and post structuralism Laclau and Mouffe argue that Marxist theory is inherently authoritarian cannot escape a class reductionist theory of revolutionary subjectivity and is bound by a closed Hegelian ontology Lovato argues the opposite by turning to two heterodox Marxist thinkers Raya Dunayevskaya and C L R James in order to construct a radically democratic dynamic and open conceptualization of dialectical thought In doing so he advances a vision of Marxist theory that might serve as a resource to scholars and activists committed not only to combatting capitalism but also to fighting against colonialism patriarchy white supremacy and heteronormativity The writings of Dunayevskaya and James allow for Marxism to become relevant again in these tumultuous early years of the 21st century Castoriadis and Critical Theory Christos Memos,2014-11-18 By exploring the concepts of crisis and critique this study offers a thought provoking re examination of the political and social thought of Cornelius Castoriadis in light of the current world crisis and with regard to his radical critique of both the traditional Left and contemporary capitalist societies
