The Idea Of The Image Josef Von Sternbergs Dietrich Films:

The Idea of the Image Carole Zucker,1988 Thinking in Images Catherine Constable,2019-07-25 Thinking in Images addresses the current crisis in film theory by offering a new methodology for interrelating theory and film texts Drawing on the groundbreaking work of Michele Le Doeuff the author argues that philosophy is reliant on socio cultural images such as the figures of the veiled woman the femme fatale and the seductress The author traces the key role played by such images of woman in the theorisations of beauty art and truth offered by Nietzsche and his successors Derrida Kofman and Baudrillard Importantly the recognition that images are crucial to theorising means that film images have the capacity to challenge and change previous theoretical models This is demonstrated by a case study of three films from the Dietrich Sternberg cycle The Scarlet Empress The Devil is a Woman and Shanghai Express The detailed readings focus on the ways in which Dietrich s glamorous characters challenge the theorisation of woman as a beautiful object thus offering new ways of conceptualising woman s role as the icon of beauty art and truth Perpetually Cool Anthony B. Chan,2007-02-08 Anna May Wong was an extraordinary Asian American woman who became the country s most famous film actress of Chinese descent From small parts in silent films to starring roles in Hollywood and across the Atlantic Wong made an impression on audiences of all persuasions In Perpetually Cool Anthony Chan takes the reader on a compelling journey through Wong s early years in Los Angeles and her first Hollywood pictures Chan also examines the scope and nature of race gender and power and their impact on Wong s personal growth as a Chinese American Perpetually Cool is not only the captivating story of a cinematic career but also of roots and identity as it recounts Wong s desire to connect with her heritage in the United States and in China Chan provides extensive textual analyses of Wong s signature films especially The Toll of the Sea 1922 The Thief of Bagdad 1924 with Douglas Fairbanks and her most famous role as Hui Fei in Shanghai Express 1932 opposite Marlene Dietrich Perpetually Cool is a fitting tribute to the influence of this Chinese American icon The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle,2008-11-28 A Who s Who of Western culture from Woody Allen to Emile Zola Containing four hundred essay style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture includes artists writers dramatists architects philosophers anthropologists scientists sociologists major political figures composers film makers and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley with John Ruskin is Salman Rushdie alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola Deng Xiaoping rubs shoulders with Jacques Derrida as do Julia Kristeva and Kropotkin With its global reach The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world The entries carry short bibliographies and there is thorough cross referencing as well as an index of names and key terms Losing the Plot Pardis Dabashi,2023-11-06 An examination of the relationship between literature and classical Hollywood cinema reveals a profound longing for plot in modernist fiction The modernist novel sought to escape what Virginia Woolf called the tyranny of plot Yet even as twentieth century writers pushed against the constraints of plot driven Victorian novels plot kept its hold on them through the influence of another medium the cinema Focusing on the novels of Nella Larsen Djuna Barnes and William Faulkner writers known for their affinities and connections to classical Hollywood Pardis Dabashi links the moviegoing practices of these writers to the tensions between the formal properties of their novels and the characters in them Even when they did not feature outright happy endings classical Hollywood films often provided satisfying formal resolutions and promoted normative social and political values Watching these films modernist authors were reminded of what they were leaving behind both formally and in the name of aesthetic experimentalism by losing the plot Spectacle in Classical Cinemas Tom Brown,2015-08-11 Spectacle is not often considered to be a significant part of the style of classical cinema Indeed some of the most influential accounts of cinematic classicism define it virtually by the supposed absence of spectacle Spectacle in Classical Cinemas Musicality and Historicity in the 1930s brings a fresh perspective on the role of the spectacular in classical sound cinema by focusing on one decade of cinema the 1930s in two modes of filmmaking musical and historical films and in two national cinemas the US and France This not only brings to light the special rhetorical and affective possibilities offered by spectacular images but refines our understanding of what classical cinema is and was The Anthem Handbook of Screen Theory Hunter Vaughan,Tom Conley,2018-07-30 The Anthem Handbook of Screen Theory offers a unique and progressive survey of screen theory and how it can be applied to a range of moving image texts and sociocultural contexts Focusing on the handbook angle the book includes only original essays from established authors in the field and new scholars on the cutting edge of helping screen theory evolve for the twenty first century vistas of new media social shifts and geopolitical change This method guarantees a strong foundation and clarity for the canon of film theory while also situating it as part of a larger genealogy of art theories and critical thought and reveals the relevance and utility of film theories and concepts to a wide array of expressive practices and specified arguments The Anthem Handbook of Screen Theory is at once inclusive applicable and a chance for writers to innovate and really play with where they think the field is can and should be heading The to Z of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer,Carol J.
