The Inbetween World Of V L:

Trapped in Between Ahmad Faisal, 2006 Trapped In Between is about the global realities in managing projects It is about people trying to understand what makes their project works or makes it worse Project managers discovered that attempting to balance projects purely on technical and financial viabilities were never good enough and has often led to many disappointments The circus of project failures demanded that somebody or something to take the fall Set against a typical major global company in Malaysia this book amplifies the underlying realities that affect projects and project management as a whole It is about the DOPer Syndrome that suffered by many fresh blood induced into the company and the realities of project s politics that has long rooted within many organisations If juggling the projects basing on just technical and financial realities are project managers nightmares inclusion of political realities will make any project manager delusional Inside the World of Comic Books Jeffery Klaehn, 2007 From gutter business to art form an engaging provocative look at all things comic book Documenting the Early Modern Book World Malcolm Walsby, Natasha Constantinidou, 2013-10-14 Scholars of pre modern literary culture rely almost exclusively on texts that have survived mostly those that have reached the comparative safety of modern library collections But the urge to record catalogue and advertise the wealth of new publications in the age of print created an additional and valuable resource book lists Printers made lists of their available stock owners catalogued their libraries religious authorities drew up indexes of banned books assessors inventoried collections and stock as part of the settlement of estates or legal proceedings This volume examines an array of such lists taken from a variety of European countries during the fifteenth sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The result is a wide ranging re evaluation of one of the most interesting and underused resources for early modern book history Contributors include J rgen Beyer Flavia Bruni Gina Dahl Cristina Dondi Shanti Graheli Neil Harris Justyna Kilia czyk Zi ba Alexander Marr Kasper van Ommen Andrea Ottone Leigh T I Penman Benito Rial Costas John Sibbald Kevin M Stevens and Malcolm Walsby Joyce in the Belly of the Big Truck; Workbook Joyce A. Cascio, 2005-05 Neglected Tropical Diseases - Middle East and North Africa Mary Ann McDowell, Sima Rafati, 2014-07-17 The Middle East and North Africa MENA is highly endemic for several neglected tropical diseases NTDs including viral bacterial protozoan and helminth infections This new volume covers the most prevalent NTDs found in about 22 MENA countries emphasizing the disease burden clinical manifestations and control approaches Each individual chapter deals with one specific disease and is written by a group of experts on that topic The Peace In Between Astri Suhrke, Mats Berdal, 2013-03 This volume examines the causes and purposes of post conflict violence The end of a war is generally expected to be followed by an end to collective violence as the term post conflict that came into general usage in the 1990s signifies In reality however various forms of deadly violence continue and sometimes even increase after the big guns have been silenced and a peace agreement signed Explanations for this and other kinds of violence fall roughly into two broad categories those that stress the legacies of the war and those that focus on the conditions of the peace There are significant gaps in the literature most importantly arising from the common premise that there is one predominant type of post war situation This post war state is often endowed with certain generic features that predispose it towards violence such as a weak state criminal elements generated by the war time economy demobilized but not demilitarized or reintegrated ex combatants impunity and rapid liberalization The premise of this volume differs It argues that features which constrain or encourage violence stack up in ways to create distinct and different types of post war environments Critical factors that shape the post war environment in this respect lie in the war to peace transition itself above all the outcome of the war in terms of military and political power and its relationship to social hierarchies of power normative understandings of the post war order and the international context This book will of much interest to students of war and conflict studies peacebuilding and IR Security Studies in general

Discovering Reality Sandra Harding, Merrill B. Hintikka †, 2012-12-06 During the last decade feminist research has attempted to add understandings of women and their social activities to what we all thought we knew about nature and social life However from the very beginning of this project it has appeared to be in tension with some of the most fundamental insights of the Second Women's Movement Only recently has the nature of this tension become clear Within the theories concepts methods and goals of inquiry we inherited from the dominant discourses we have generated an impressive collection of facts about women and their lives cross culturally and historically and we can produce many many more But these do not and cannot add up to more than a partial and distorted understanding of the patterns of women's lives We cannot understand women and their lives by adding facts about them to bodies of knowledge which take men their lives and their beliefs as the human norm Furthermore it is now evident that if women's lives cannot be understood within the inherited inquiry frameworks than neither can men's lives The attempts to add understandings of women to our knowledge of nature and social life have led to the realization that there is precious little reliable knowledge to which to add them A more fundamental project now confronts us We must root out sexist distortions and perversions in epistemology metaphysics methodology and the philosophy of science in the hard core of abstract reasoning thought most immune to infiltration by social values The Roads In-between Johan Normark,2006 The Changing World Religion Map Stanley D. Brunn,2015-02-03 This extensive work explores the changing world of religions faiths and practices It discusses a broad range of issues and phenomena that are related to religion including nature ethics secularization gender and identity Broadening the context it studies the interrelation between religion and other fields including education business economics and law The book presents a vast array of examples to illustrate the changes that have taken place and have led to a new world map of religions Beginning with an introduction of the concept of the changing world religion map the book first focuses on nature ethics and the environment It examines humankind's eternal search for the sacred and discusses the emergence of green religion as a theme that cuts across many faiths Next the book turns to the theme of the pilgrimage illustrated by many examples from all parts of the world In its discussion of the interrelation between religion and education it looks at the role of missionary movements It explains the relationship between religion business economics and law by means of a discussion of legal and moral frameworks and the financial and business issues of religious organizations The next part of the book explores the many new faces that are part of the religious landscape and culture of the Global North Europe Russia Australia and New Zealand the U S and Canada and the Global South Latin America Africa and Asia It does so by looking at specific population movements diasporas and the impact of globalization The volume next turns to secularization as both a phenomenon occurring in the Global religious North and as an emerging and distinguishing feature in the metropolitan cosmopolitan and gateway cities and regions in the Global South The final part of the book explores the changing world of religion in regards to gender and identity issues the political religious nexus and the new worlds associated with the virtual technologies and visual media
