The Infernal Machine, and Other Plays Jean Cocteau, 1964 Four full length plays by one of the greatest dramatists Europe has produced The Infernal Machine, and Other Plays. (Orpheus, The Eiffel Tower Wedding Party, The Knights of the Round Table, Bacchus, The Speaker's Text of Oedipus Rex.). Jean Cocteau, 1963 The Infernal Machine Jean Cocteau, 1936 The Infernal Machine Jean Cocteau, 1950 The Traveling Companion & Other Plays Tennessee Williams, 2016-03-04 Twelve previously uncollected experimental shorter plays The Chalky White Substance The Day on Which a Man Dies An Occidental Noh Play A Cavalier for Milady The Pronoun I The Remarkable Rooming House of Mme LeMonde Kirche K che Kinder An Outrage for the Stage Green Eyes The Parade The One Exception Sunburst Will Mr Merriwether Return from Memphis The Traveling Companion Even with his great commercial success Tennessee Williams always considered himself an experimental playwright In the last 25 years of his life his explorations increased especially in shorter forms and one act plays as Williams created performance pieces with elements of theater of the absurd theater of cruelty theater of the ridiculous as well as motifs from Japanese forms such as Noh and Kabuki high camp and satire and with innovative visual and verbal styles that were entirely his own Influenced by Beckett Genet and Pinter among others Williams worked hard to expand the boundaries of the lyric realism he was best known for These plays were explicitly intended to be performed off Broadway or regionally Sometimes disturbing sometimes outrageous quite often the tone of these plays is rough bawdy or even cartoonish While a number of these plays employ what could be termed bizarre happy endings others gaze unblinkingly into the darkness Though several of Williams lesser known works from this period have already been published by New Directions these twelve plays have never been collected Most of these shorter plays are unknown to audiences and scholars some are published here for the first time yet all of them embrace in one way or another what Time magazine called the four major concerns that have spurred Williams dramatic imagination loneliness love the violated heart and the valiancy of survival Jean Cocteau James S. Williams, 2008-02-01 Despite Jean Cocteau's renown as a leading figure in European cinema his work and life have rarely been examined together Evaluating Cocteau's career and his fascinating personal life on equal terms James Williams offers here a groundbreaking analysis that sets them both within highly revealing historical and artistic contexts Williams's biographical investigation of this poet dramatist novelist designer and filmmaker centers around Cocteau's constant self-questioning and how it permeated his work From Cocteau's work in fashion and photography to his formal experimentation to his extensive collaborations with male friends and lovers the book charts the complex and unpredictable evolution of his work and aesthetic Williams argues that Cocteau's body of work is best viewed as an ethical erotic project of aesthetics that carries important ramifications for our contemporary understanding of being and subjectivity An engaging and wholly accessible account Jean Cocteau is essential reading for all those fascinated by the man and his unforgettable films

Private Readings/public Texts Kenneth Krauss, 1993 In this volume Kenneth Krauss maintains that if readers are to comprehend playscripts as plays they must imagine the theatre audience so vital to the staging of any script but conspicuously absent from the text itself Krauss examines what has been written about reading playscripts or playreading and proposes four possible ways founded on a reception oriented approach to theatre communication and spectator response that playreaders may construct a sense of theatre audiences

Candles to the Sun Dan Isaac, Tennessee Williams, 2016-02-23 This early play about coal miners struggling to improve their lives helped establish a young Tennessee Williams as a powerful new voice in American theater The first full length play by novice playwright Thomas Lanier Williams Candles to the Sun opened on Thursday March 18 1937 and received rave reviews in the local press The Mumpers a semi professional and socially aware theater troupe in St Louis produced the play and the combination of director Willard Holland's theater of social protest and the young Williams talent for the dramatic depiction of poverty and its consequences proved irresistible to an audience eager for relevant social content Set in the Red Hills coal mining section of Alabama Candles to the Sun deals with both the attempts of the miners to unionize and the bleak lives of their families Colvin McPherson of the St Louis Post Dispatch wrote that Williams a 25 year old Washington University senior is revealed not only as a writer of unusual promise but one of considerable technical skill right now His writing is rarely unsteady and his play has an emotional unity and robustness It stands on its own feet Its characters are genuine its dialogue of a type that must have been uttered in the author's presence its appeal in the theater widespread As it turns out Tom Williams had never met a miner in his young life As he did for another early Williams play Spring Storm Dan Isaac uses his directorial skills to prepare a text of Candles to the Sun that is faithful to the 1937 production while providing readers and actors with a social and theatrical context William Jay Smith former Poet Laureate of the United States and St Louis friend of the playwright has contributed an illuminating foreword that touches not only on his memories of the young Tom Williams and the original production of Candles but also on the poetic nature of Williams writing as reflected in this play
