The Information Society And The Black Community Hardcover:

The African-American Male Jacob U. Gordon,1999-07-30 The plight of the Black male in American society has been well documented by scholars and practitioners Although Black males represent only 6 percent of the American population they represent about 40 percent of the prison population the number of Black males in prison and jail exceeds the number of Black males in higher education The homicide rates for Black males were 72 5 percent per 100 000 nearly eight times higher than for White males This bibliographic volume explores the extent to which American academia has addressed these problems It will be an invaluable resource for researchers as well as practitioners in social service programs In addition to more than 400 annotated publications the book includes a selected list of works on the African American male and a compilation of doctoral dissertations This publication will serve as a reference in public as well as academic libraries human service agencies government policymaking agencies and in academic courses in gender and ethnic studies criminal justice and social psychology *G.K. Break out! (paperback) Huub Stiekema,2010-06-05 Break out Living in the new unreality can be taken literally for police officers Outside of work we are already living in the information space or the new reality It s the reality of the criminal world It s the reality of our home situation and the very people we are here to protect and serve But when we go to work we put these 4 walls around us put our uniforms on we use the internal wired information stream protected by a strong firewall and we emerge ourselves into a bubble of unreality Choice ,2000 Sixth Biennial Conference of the European Society for Engineering and Medicine European Society for Engineering and Medicine. Conference,2001 The European Society for Engineering and Medicine is representative of both the engineering and medicine communities with membership drawn across Europe The aim of the society is to provide a bridge between the two communities to facilitate engineering solutions to medical problems The ESEM 2001 conference had a real world focus and scientific papers were selected on the basis of their clinical application Contributors at the conference were worldwide to reflect the global relevance and significance of the topics The papers reflect the three main tracks of the conference health information systems bioengineering and medical instrumentation and imaging Within each of these areas there are a number of sub themes on a diverse range of topics such as tissue engineering and artificial organs computers in medicine and biomedical processing and modelling This volume is a record of the oral and poster presentations made at the conference with an overview of the conference structure and a list of keynote speakers Black Enterprise ,1992-03 BLACK ENTERPRISE is the ultimate source for wealth creation for African American professionals entrepreneurs and corporate executives Every month BLACK ENTERPRISE delivers timely useful
