Their odyssey begins when they investigate the strange and eerie noises emanating from a house referred to by the local community as haunted. The house was abandoned and then totally neglected after the old eccentric owner was apparently kidnapped and never heard from again. However, once inside the house, Max and Andy are startled when they hear creaking sounds coming from a room directly above them. There are no footprints or smudge marks on the dusty floor below, so Max asks the obvious: How did they get up there? Despite Max's fear, which was bordering on panic, Andy's stubborn curiosity convinces Max to pursue their dangerous voyage up the stairs to the second floor. And although they pay dearly for their journey, they do come away with a few pieces to an ever-widening puzzle. The puzzle, which was eventually pieced together by the young sleuths, established why the address plaques were stolen. They also uncovered a murder made to look like suicide and developed an insight into a fifty-year-old jewel theft and the mystery of the haunted house.
