The Legend Of Hammiedownz:

A Thousand Miles from Nowhere John Gregory Brown, 2017-10-24 You have lost everything yes Everything Henry thought he considered the word Had he lost everything Fleeing New Orleans as Hurricane Katrina approaches Henry Garrett is haunted by the ruins of his marriage a squandered inheritance and the teaching job he inexplicably quit He pulls into a small Virginia town after three days on the road hoping to silence the ceaseless clamor in his head But this quest for peace and quiet as the only guest at a roadside motel is destroyed when Henry finds himself at the center of a bizarre and violent tragedy As a result Henry winds up stranded at the ramshackle motel just outside the small town of Marimore and it is there that he is pulled into the lives of those around him Latangi the motel's recently widowed proprietor who seems to have a plan for Henry Marge a local secretary who marshals the collective energy of her women's church group and the family of an old man a prisoner who dies in a desperate effort to provide for his infirm wife For his previous novels John Gregory Brown has been lauded for his compassionate vision of human destiny as well as his melodic haunting and rhythmic prose With A Thousand Miles From Nowhere he assumes his place in the tradition of such masterful storytellers as Flannery O'Connor and Walker Percy offering to readers a tragicomic tour de force about the power of art and compassion and one man's search for faith love and redemption John Gregory Brown is a writer I've long admired and this new novel is his best book yet A

Outside and Inside Reva Marin, 2020-10-16 Outside and Inside Representations of Race and Identity in White Jazz Autobiography is the first full length study of key autobiographies of white jazz musicians White musicians from a wide range of musical social and economic backgrounds looked to black music and culture as the model on which to form their personal identities and their identities as professional musicians Their accounts illustrate the triumphs and failures of jazz interracialism As they describe their relationships with black musicians who are their teachers and peers white jazz autobiographers display the contradictory attitudes of reverence and entitlement and deference and insensitivity that remain part of the white response to black culture to the present day Outside and Inside features insights into the development of jazz styles and culture in the urban meccas of twentieth century jazz in New Orleans Chicago New York and Los Angeles Reva Marin considers the autobiographies of sixteen white male jazz instrumentalists including renowned swing era bandleaders Benny Goodman Artie Shaw and Charlie Barnet reed instrumentalists Mezz Mezzrow Bob Wilber and Bud Freeman trumpeters Max Kaminsky and Wingy Manone guitarist Steve Jordan pianists Art Hodes and Don Asher saxophonist Art Pepper guitarist and bandleader Eddie Condon and New Orleans style clarinetist Tom Sancton While critical race theory informs this work Marin argues that viewing these texts simply through the lens of white privilege does not do justice to the kind of sustained relationships with black music and culture described in the accounts of white jazz autobiographers She both insists upon the value of insider perspectives and holds the texts to rigorous scrutiny while embracing an expansive interpretation of white involvement in black culture Marin opens new paths for study of race relations and racial ethnic and gender identity formation in jazz studies

Post-Agreement Northern Irish Literature Birte Heidemann, 2016-06-23 This book uncovers a new genre of post Agreement literature consisting of a body of texts fiction poetry and drama by Northern Irish writers who grew up during the Troubles but published their work in the aftermath of the Good Friday Agreement In an attempt to demarcate the literary aesthetic parameters of the genre the book proposes a selective revision of postcolonial theories on liminality through a subset of concepts such as negative liminality liminal suspension and liminal permanence These conceptual interventions as the readings demonstrate help articulate how the Agreement's rhetorical negation of the sectarian past and its aggressive neoliberal campaign towards a progressive future breed new forms of violence that produce liminally suspended subject positions
