whispering softly and sadly together of the fate of their lost brother Phaethon So it was that one story grew out of another until one almost wonders that the story tellers ever knew where to stop If children asked who made the thick walls of monstrous stones that were old even in those times the answer was The Cyclops and then there were stories upon stories of those amazing one eyed giants But where did we ourselves come from a child would sometimes ask and there was a story about that too Once upon a time the people in the world were very wicked it said and Zeus sent a great flood to destroy them Now Deucalion and his wife Pyrrha were good and so Zeus promised that they should be saved The Story of the Greek People Eva March Tappan,1908 Abbeys, Castles and Ancient Halls of England and Wales John Timbs,1870
