The Lestriad:

The Lestriad Steve Katz, 1987 43 Views of Steve Katz W. C. Bamberger, 2007-03-01 American writer Steve Katz published his first book The Lestriad in 1962 Subsequent novels and collections have continue to appear from such imprints as Holt Rinehart and Winston Random House Alfred A Knopf Ithaca House and Sun Moon According to critic Jerome Klinkowitz Katz has pushed innovation farther than any of his contemporaries W C Bamberger regards him as the most important living American novelist This first extended guide to the author s fiction includes a bibliography detailed index notes and 200 pages of illuminating commentary W C Bamberger is the author of ten books and dozens of published critical essays on the major writers of our time including the volumes William Eastlake High Desert Interlocutor and The Work of William Eastlake An Annotated Bibliography and Guide both available from Borgo Press He lives and works in Michigan

Landscapes of Language: Richard Brautigan's Fiction John Tanner, 2013-10-01 In the late 1960s and early 1970s Richard Brautigan was a counter cultural celebrity a writer that the would be hip just had to read The problem was that his fame did not rest on the considerable literary virtues of his work but to a great extent on a hippie image exemplified by the photograph of him on the cover of his breakthrough novel Trout Fishing in America When nobody wanted tie dye shirts and gurus any more they didn t want Brautigan either Academics have followed the public s lead this is the first book length study of Brautigan in English for 30 years Its purpose is to reclaim Brautigan s reputation Dr John Tanner analyses Brautigan s fiction against the background of the cultural and literary upheavals from which it emerged and demonstrates that

Brautigan is no mere Sixties curio but an innovative and vibrant American voice ignored for far too long Time's Wallet Steve Katz, 2010 Literary Nonfiction Memoir Time s Wallet is a memoir written in discrete pieces memoirrhoids The 54 short bits cover the variety and extent of a life from 1935 to the present from Manhattan by various routes to Denver Colorado The work presents itself not as a narrative arc but as memory itself occurs in brief stories rising more or less at random in the mind Each remembered narrative is allowed to resolve itself through its own form and that variety creates a different overall texture Each of the stories is transparent in itself but they add up to a fertile opacity that is the ineluctable vitality of a life and the impenetrable presence the here it is of art The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel, 2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature and memoirs Yiddish writing and Anglo Jewish literature provides a chronology of twentieth century Jewish writers Compiled by expert contributors this book contains over 330 entries on individual authors each consisting of a biography a list of selected publications a scholarly essay on their work and suggestions for further reading The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2009-07-23 Postmodernist literature embraces a wide range of forms and perspectives including texts that are primarily self reflexive texts that use pastiche burlesque parody intertextuality and hybrid forms to create textual realities that either run in opposition to or in parallel with an external reality fabrications that develop both of these strategies texts that ironize their relationship to reality works that use the aspects already noted to more fully engage with political or cultural realities texts that deal with history as a fiction and texts that elude categorization even within the variety already explored For example in fiction a postmodernist novel might tell a story about a writer struggling with writing only perhaps to find that he is a character in a book by another writer struggling to write a book The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and the variety of forms that have been produced This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first century operates Who's Who of Twentieth Century Novelists Tim Woods, 2008-02-21 Taking in novelists from all over the globe from the beginning of the century to the present day this is the most comprehensive survey of the leading lights of twentieth century fiction Superb breadth of coverage and over 800 entries by an international team of contributors ensures that this fascinating and wide ranging work of reference will be invaluable to anyone with an interest in modern fiction Authors included range from Joseph Conrad to Albert Camus and Franz Kafka to Chinua Achebe Who's Who of Twentieth Century Novelists gives a superb insight into the richness and diversity of the twentieth century novel
