Harrington, 2016-12-01 When is a letter not a letter When it is the Letter to the Hebrews Daniel J Harrington describes this text as the greatest Christian sermon ever preached or written and its author as the patron saint of preachers The basic theological point of the sermon is that Christ is both the perfect sacrifice for sins and the priest who offers himself as a sacrifice The anonymous author of this work addresses Jewish Christians who had embraced Christianity with enthusiasm but were becoming discouraged and falling away in the face of suffering The biblical text and Harrington s uncomplicated commentary are ideal components for individual and group study Reading and reflection will produce a renewed appreciation of the saving work of Jesus Daniel J Harrington SJ PhD is professor of New Testament at Boston College School of Theology and Ministry Cambridge Massachusetts and editor of the Sacra Pagina series published by Liturgical Press

Worship in the Letter to the Hebrews John Paul Heil, 2011-10-17 This book seeks a more comprehensive understanding and appreciation for the Letter to the Hebrews by examining it from the viewpoint of its prominent theme of worship It aims to demonstrate the topic of worship in all of its rich and varied dimensions provides the major concern and thrust that embraces Hebrews from start to finish The author of Hebrews encourages his audience to hold on to the letter he has written to them as the word of the encouragement Heb 13 22 In a very carefully concerted and masterfully artistic way the letter persistently encourages the members of its audience with regard to their worship Indeed Hebrews was intended to be presented orally in a public performance as a liturgical or homiletic letter an act of worship in itself heard by its audience gathered together as a worshiping assembly Hebrews exhorts the members of its audience not only with regard to their liturgical worship in which they engage during their communal gatherings but also with regard to their ethical or moral worship in which they engage by the way they conduct themselves outside of their communal gatherings This close examination of Hebrews through the lens of worship is intended to inform and enrich the worship of Christians today Hebrews presents important and unique points about worship not found in any other New Testament writing The goal is to illustrate and illuminate these points for the benefit of those who desire to deepen their worship as Christians by deepening their understanding of the magnificent literary masterpiece that the poetically lively letter to the Hebrews articulates for all Christians

Legitimation in the Letter to the Hebrews Iutisone Salevao, 2002-06-18 This book adopts an inter disciplinary approach to the study of the theology symbolism and argument of Hebrews Employing sociological models the book examines Hebrews in the context of the early Christians construction and maintenance of a social world In that respect the book elaborates the thesis that Hebrews was designed to serve a legitimating function in the realm of social interaction that its theology symbolism and argument were designed to construct and maintain the symbolic universe of the community of the readers It is argued that we cannot properly understand the theology symbolism and argument of Hebrews apart from its first century context

A Discourse Analysis of the Letter to the Hebrews Cynthia Long Westfall, 2006-06-22 This study attempts to analyse the text of Hebrews with a method of discourse analysis primarily based on a form of systemic functional linguistics developed for Hellenistic Greek but it is also informed by other linguistic studies It begins with a general survey of the literature that is either influential or representative of approaches to the structure of Hebrews The survey is followed by an introduction to the terminology and definitions of discourse analysis as well as the theory behind the methodology and describes a procedure for analysing text Hebrews is treated as having three sections The first section of Hebrews 1 1 4 16 demonstrates the organization of the units the topic of the units the prominent text and the relationship of the first section with the rest of the discourse The second section of Hebrews 4 11 10 25 is described in two parts 4 11 7 28 and 8 1 10 25 because of its length There is an overlap between the first and second sections in 4 11 16 and between the second and third sections in 10 19 25 Both of these passages have a concluding function for the preceding co text and a staging function for the following co text so that they look backwards and forwards The third and final section in 10 19 13 25 contains the climax or discourse peak The study is concluded with a description of the coherence of the discourse and a presentation of a mental representation of the text JSNTS and Studies in New Testament Greek subseries

The Letter to the Hebrews in Social-Scientific Perspective David A. deSilva, 2012-06-20 A lot of mystery surrounds the book of Hebrews especially regarding its authorship date and audience But by asking the right kind of questions one can move beyond the impasses typical of historical investigation In this volume David deSilva explores Hebrews through a social scientific lens asking one of the most important questions when interpreting letters and sermons What was going on in the community to occasion such a response DeSilva looks for clues concerning the anonymous author his education level the influence of the Greek environment and his perception of his own authority In addition by forming a social profile of the audience that includes location ethnicity and class status deSilva brings to light the author s aims of helping protect Christian converts from persecution and social shame This book not only helps the sermon to the Hebrews take on flesh and blood for contemporary readers it also expands the readers tools for asking fresh questions and exploring new dimensions in biblical texts What are They Saying about the Letter to the Hebrews? Daniel J. Harrington, 2005 Arguably the greatest Christian sermon ever written yet one of the more neglected and difficult writings in the New Testament the Letter to the Hebrews is says the author a long reflection on Jesus as the definitive means of access to God This book surveys recent scholarship about Hebrews and the progress made in that scholarship and informs prospective students and theologians of resources available to them Biblical scholars theologians students and pastors will find this work to be stimulating and enriching on the biblical theological and pastoral levels BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Covenant and Sacrifice in the Letter to the Hebrews John Dunnill, 2005-10-06 This study focuses on the way the Letter to the Hebrews explains the Christian doctrine of salvation by means of sacrificial symbols drawn from the Old Testament Theories about the nature of sacrifice are taken from the work of social anthropologists to show the underlying meaning of these symbols S. Paul (and the Letter to the Hebrews) , 1901
