The Best Letters of Charles Lamb Charles Lamb, 2015-06-25 Excerpt from The Best Letters of Charles Lamb In this edition of the correspondence of Charles Lamb that of his sister Mary Lamb is for the first time included In it also appear for the first time between seventy and eighty letters many of them of the highest importance and it is the first edition to take note in chronological order of those letters printed by other editors that are not available for the present volumes a step which should I think add to the biographical value of the work In these two volumes I have after much consideration placed my notes at the end of each letter rather than as in the five preceding volumes at the end of the book My reason for doing so was twofold in the first place to serve the convenience of the reader to whom annotation of the correspondence is often a necessity and not as in the case of the other writings a luxury and in the second place because by joining the letters with a few words of commentary they can be made practically into a consecutive Life The self conscious deliberate construction of Lamb s essays and poems each a work of art forbade the introduction of footnotes that might distract the attention from the true matter of the text hence in the preceding five volumes such remarks as the editor had to make will be found sharply separated from the authors part of the book But here where Lamb is often writing without premeditation with a running pen and writing moreover for a single reader it seemed to me that the impropriety of interrupting the correspondence by elucidatory comments was so slight as to be almost non-existent About the Publisher
