Democracies derive their resilience and vitality from the fact that the rule of a particular majority is usually only of a temporary nature By looking at four case studies The Awkward Embrace studies democracies of a different kind rule by a dominant party which is virtually immune from defeat Such systems have been called Regnant or or Uncommon Democracies They are characterized by distinctive features the staging of unfree or corrupt elections the blurring of the lines between government the ruling party and the state the introduction of a national project which is seen to be above politics and the erosion of civil society This book addresses major issues such as why one such democracy namely Taiwan has been moving in the direction of a more competitive system how economic crises such as the present one in Mexico can transform the system how government business relations in Malaysia are affecting the base of the dominant party and whether South Africa will become a one party dominant system A History of the University College of Fort Hare, South Africa, the 1950s

Northern Ireland is a place apart its conflict the result of peculiarly local circumstances Northern Ireland is compared with other divided societies in four continents including the Aland Islands the Basque Country Canada Cyprus Corsica East Timor Israel Palestine Lebanon Puerto Rico South Africa South Tyrol and Sri Lanka The collection shows that comparative analysis is essential for understanding the dynamics of Northern Ireland's conflict and ethnic conflict in general It also shows the value of comparative analysis for conflict management The contributors offer a wealth of suggestions on how to consolidate or change the landmark Agreement that Northern Ireland's political parties reached in April 1998

The Origins of Non-Racialism David Everatt, 2009-06-01 How did South Africa embrace non racialism After centuries of white domination and decades of increasingly savage repression freedom came to South Africa far later than elsewhere in the continent and yet was marked by a commitment to non racialism Nelson Mandela's Cabinet and government were made up of women and men of all races and many spoke of the birth of a new Rainbow Nation How did this come about How did an African nationalist liberation movement resisting apartheid a universally denounced violent expression of white supremacy open its doors to other races and whites in particular And what did non racialism mean This is the real miracle of South Africa that at the height of white supremacy and repression black and white democrats in their different organisations coming from vastly different backgrounds and traditions agreed on one thing that the future for South Africa would be non racial

Black Political Thought in the Making of South African Democracy C.R.D. Halisi, 1999 a comprehensive analytical survey of the multidimensional evolution of black political thought in South Africa's politicization process. Choice Many citizens experience a sense of reluctance to share a single national identity with all of those who are defined by law to be their compatriots. This problem can be explained and surmounted but it cannot be evaded by those who aspire to build a stable democracy in South Africa. Richard L. Sklar from the Foreword. What will it mean to be a citizen in the new South Africa. This penetrating study analyzes the issues of dual citizenship, black consciousness, populism, racial proletarianization and their interaction with various political ideologies. Halisi's analysis has practical implications for the development of political identity in the new South Africa.

Pioneers of Genocide Studies Steven Jacobs, 2017-07-05. From the early efforts that emerged in the struggle against Nazism and over the past half century the field of genocide studies has grown in reach to include five genocide centers across the globe and well over one hundred Holocaust centers. This work enables a new generation of scholars, researchers and policymakers to assess the major foci of the field, develop ways and means to intervene and prevent future genocides and review the successes and failures of the past. The contributors to Pioneers of Genocide Studies approach the questions of greatest relevance in a personal way, crafting a statement that reveals one's individual voice, persuasions, literary style, scholarly perspectives and relevant details of one's life. The book epitomizes scholarly autobiographical writing at its best. The book also includes the most important works by each author on the issue of genocide. Among the contributors are experts in the Armenian, Bosnian and Cambodian genocides as well as the Holocaust against the Jewish people. The contributors are Rouben Adalian, M. Cherif Bassiouni, Israel W. Charney, Vahakn Dadrian, Helen Fein, Barbara Harff, David Hawk, Herbert Hirsch, Irving Louis Horowitz, Richard Hovannisian, Henry Huttenbach, Leo Kuper, Raphael Lemkin, James E. Mace, Eric Markusen, Robert Melson, R. J. Rummel, Roger W. Smith, Gregory H. Stanton, Ervin Staub, Colin Tatz, Yves Ternan and the co-editors. The work represents a high watermark in the reflections and self-reflections on the comparative study of genocide.

Pioneers of Genocide Studies (Clt) Samuel Totten, Steven Leonard Jacobs, 2002. New areas of research are not the result of a snap of the finger. They are carved out of the marrow of human existence. The study of genocide well illustrates this raw fact. From the early efforts that emerged in the struggle against Nazism and over the past half century the field has now reached a point where there are at least five genocide centers across the globe and well over one hundred Holocaust centers. This work emerged out of an earlier effort at an oral history project, one that would enable a new generation of scholars, researchers and policy makers to assess the major foci of the field, efforts to develop ways and means to intervene and prevent future genocides and review the successes and failures of the field. The editors of Pioneers of Genocide Studies emphasize that contributors should approach the questions of greatest relevance in a personal way, crafting a statement that reveals one's individual voice, persuasions, literary style, scholarly perspectives and relevant details of one's life. The book succeeds admirably in the above aims and in so doing epitomizes scholarly autobiographical writing at its best. The book also includes the most important works by each author on the issue of genocide As a result the collective portrait enhances the usefulness of the volume for those new to the field Among the contributors are experts in the Armenian Bosnian Cambodian genocides as well as the Holocaust against the Jewish people The contributors are Rouben Adalian M Cherif Bassiouni Israel W Charney Vahakn Dadrian Helen Fein Barbara Harff David Hawk Herbert Hirsch Irving Louis Horowitz Richard Hovannisian Henry Huttenbach Leo Kuper Raphael Lemkin James E Mace Eric Markusen Robert Melson R J Rummel Roger W Smith Gregory H Stanton Ervin Staub Colin Tatz Yves Ternan and the co editors The work has been five years in the making and represents a high watermark in the reflections and self reflections on the comparative study of genocide Samuel Totten is professor of curriculum and instruction in the College of Education and Health Professions at the University of Arkansas Fayetteville He is the editor of First Person Accounts of Genocidal Acts and Century of Genocide Eyewitness Accounts and Critical Views and book review editor for the Journal of Genocide Research Steven Leonard Jacobs is associate professor and Aaron Aronov Chair of Judaic Studies in the department of religious studies at the University of Alabama Tuscaloosa He is the author of Shirot Bialik A New and Annotated Translation of Chaim Nachman Bialiks Epic Poems Raphael Lemkins Thoughts on Nazi Genocide Not Guilty and Contemporary Christian and Contemporary Jewish Religious Responses to the Shoah
