Couvares, 2006 From the earliest days of public outrage over indecent nickelodeon shows Americans have worried about the power of the movies The eleven essays in this book examine nearly a century of struggle over cinematic representations of sex crime violence religion race and ethnicity revealing that the effort to regulate the screen has reflected deep social and cultural schisms In addition to the editor contributors include Daniel Czitrom Marybeth Hamilton Garth Jowett Charles Lyons Richard Maltby Charles Musser Alison M Parker Charlene Regeister Ruth Vasey and Stephen Vaughn Together they make it clear that censoring the movies is more than just a reflex against indecency however defined Whether censorship protects the vulnerable or suppresses the creative it is part of a broader culture war that breaks out recurrently as Americans try to come to terms with the market the state and the plural society in which they live The Reform Advocate, 1910 Encyclopædia Biblica Thomas Kelly Cheyne, John Sutherland Black, 1901 Bulletin, 1960 Civil War in China Suzanne Pepper, 1999-07-22 Many books have tried to analyze the reasons for the Chinese communist success in China s 1945_1949 civil war but Suzanne Pepper s seminal work was the first and remains the only comprehensive analysis of how the ruling Nationalists lost that war_not just militarily but by alienating the civilian population through corruption and incompetence Now available in a new edition this authoritative investigation of Kuomintang failure and communist success explores the new research and archival resources available for assessing this pivotal period in contemporary Chinese history Even more relevant today given the contemporary debates in Hong Kong and Taiwan over the terms of reunification with a communist led national government in Beijing this book is essential reading for anyone seeking a nuanced understanding of twentieth century Chinese politics The Return of Theory in Early Modern English Studies, Volume II P.
