The Life And Times Of Stack:

The Life and Times of Stack Essie Luella Nelson, 2001-09-11 Stack Hayward has spent much of his life entertaining people he meets everywhere with his tales of the good old days He finds humor in most of the events of his daily life He has a special way of injecting a double dose of his miracle medicine humor into the veins of friends or foes alike who find themselves out of humor and in need of a good uplift His motto is Laughter is good for the soul The Life and Times of a Super Salesman and a Thrill Seeker Calvin D. Manley, 2013-06-13 My book is my autobiography it is told in a short story form all about the highs and the many lows I experienced and the decisions I made that propelled me to both my successes and my many failures that I reached out seeking to find I always hoped for the best I expected I might find the very worst and usually it would fall somewhere in between that way I was seldom if ever disappointed I always tried to treat people I met with the same respect as I wanted them to show to me in return I know I could have done better than I did most times but I truly never took LOVE lightly nor did I tell women I met that I loved them just because it was convenient to do so I often tried to express my feelings the best way I could with most of the poetry I wrote with honesty and a sincere amount of humility and inspiration If I could change only one thing in my life I would try to have been a better roll model to my kids and to have been a better father and grand pa My book covers a one of a kind story of my meeting and beating Evel Kneivel at his own game twice and my struggle with alcohol my Serious Gambling addiction and my Deadly fight with Cancer The Life and

Times of Ray Hicks Lynn Salsi, 2008 Renowned storyteller Ray Hicks was a certified national treasure He received many prestigious honors in his lifetime including the National Heritage Fellowship Award from the National Endowment for the Arts Best known for his traditional storytelling and also for saving the original Beech Mountain Jack tales brought to the Appalachian Mountains by his ancestors as early as 1776 Hicks was conscious of the role he played in the preservation of oral storytelling Many of those stories are included in The Life and Times of Ray Hicks Born in 1922 Ray lived his whole life in the Appalachian Mountains of North Carolina Although it finally got a refrigerator and electric lights Ray's place never did get a telephone indoor plumbing or a radio or television It seems he knew everything there was to know about living off the land and about his family's history A lot of what he knew is in this new book Hicks made his public storytelling debut in 1951 when a local schoolteacher invited him to her class In 1973 Ray performed at the very first International Storytelling Festival in Jonesborough Tennessee He appeared at every one until he became too weak to attend He died on Easter Sunday in 2003 Based on hundreds of hours of interviews and visits painstakingly pieced together by Lynn Salsi The Life and Times of Ray Hicks comes as close as possible to capturing the way Ray talked Part memoir and part biography The Life and Times of Ray Hicks presents sometimes in Ray Hicks's own words the most important part of his long colorful life a life scarcely less interesting than the Jack Tales he told so well Lynn Salsi is the author of several books including The Jack Tales and Young Ray Hicks Learns the Jack Tales She has received the American Library Association's Notable Book Award six Willie Parker

Lertzman, 2015-10-20 A definitive biography of the iconic actor and Hollywood legend Mickey Rooney 1920 2014 and his extravagant sometimes tawdry life drawing on never before seen excerpts from Rooney's diary and exclusive interviews with Mickey and with those who knew him best including his heretofore unknown mistress of sixty years Autobiography of the Life and Times of the Rev. George Pegler George Pegler, 1879 All the Rage Virginia Nicholson, 2024-08-06 A panoramic social history that chronicles the quest for beauty in all its contradictions and how it affects the female body Who decides what is fashionable What clothes we wear what hairstyles we create what colour lipstick we adore what body shape is all the rage The story of female adornment from 1860 1960 is intriguingly unbuttoned in this glorious social history Virginia Nicholson has long been fascinated by the way we women present ourselves or are encouraged to present ourselves to the world Women have been fat or slim hyperthyroid or splenetic sallow or pink cheeked slouched or erect according to the prevalent notions of beauty Cecil Beaton The Glass of Fashion 1954 In this book we learn about rational dress suffragettes hats the Marcel wave the Gibson Girls corsets and the banana skirt At the centre of this story is the female body in all its diversity fat thin short tall brown white black pink smooth hairy wrinkly youthful crooked or symmetrical and relevant as ever in this context the vexed issues of body image and bodily autonomy We may even find ourselves wondering whose body is it In the hundred years this book charts the western world saw the rapid introduction of new technologies like photography film and eventually TV which for better and worse thrust women and female imagery out of the private and into the public gaze How It All Works & How We Fit In Don Kerr, 2004-11-22 Don Kerr www.donkerr.com Jane Roberts SETH books taught us that we create our reality through our beliefs Richard Bach's books showed us that space and time are illusions which we create and which then reflect back to us usually surprising us along the way Written by a practicing architect who enjoys seeing how things go together this book explores many areas of wonderment Where did we come from What are we doing here Where does it all lead Is this reincarnation stuff for real And what for Heavens sake does time is an illusion mean to our time obsessed generations Can anyone help us understand any of this And then there are ghosts the light at the end of the tunnel near death experiences possession ouija boards astral travel A lot of stuff to consider or be repelled by Asked by a confused young woman in the New Age section of a bookstore in Montreal if the author had any idea where a beginner should start reading to avoid the garbage he suggested several titles in which he had confidence but realized that there really was nothing on any shelves at that time like HOW IT ALL WORKS which could pull all the strings together into a lifeline What was needed was something that could give one an overview of the related thinking of the streampsychic theorems unexplained observations and experiences odd practices the speculations of theoretical physics which would avoid nonsensical invention And it would have to be daring because we live in a society and culture where we have been brought up to believe a large number of things on faith which simply don't hold up to thoughtful examination And that can be daunting There was a time when owning this book would have had you imprisoned It was clever of you to incarnate in a historic period when you can enjoy this speculation without looking over your shoulder This book will try to answer your questions will look at what we know so far what the implications are of that knowledge and how we can adjust our lives so that they better fit our dreams And we can Simple illustrations show ways to visualize several of the concepts Written with a lively sense of humor the text will challenge your programming but will gently guide you to a place where you will know that lifes challenges have purpose and meaning and nothing is hidden from you in a neutral Universe that somehow cares You just have to take off your blinders Life is adventuresome and it is us who make it appear any way we wish Choose well *The Lock and Key Library: Real life.
