The Stories We Are William Randall, 2013-12-31 From time to time we all tend to wonder what sort of story our life might comprise what it means where it is going and whether it hangs together as a whole In The Stories We Are William Lowell Randall explores the links between literature and life and speculates on the range of storytelling styles through which people compose their lives In doing so he draws on a variety of fields including psychology psychotherapy theology philosophy feminist theory and literary theory Using categories like plot character point of view and style Randall plays with the possibility that we each make sense of the events of our lives to the extent that we weave them into our own unfolding novel as simultaneously its author narrator main character and reader In the process he offers us a unique perspective on features of our day to day world such as secrecy self deception gossip prejudice intimacy maturity and the proverbial art of living First published in 1995 this second edition of The Stories We Are includes a new preface and afterword by the author that offer insight into his argument and evolution as a scholar as well as an illuminating foreword by Ruthellen Josselson Books in Motion Mireia Aragay, 2005 Books in Motion addresses the hybrid interstitial field of film adaptation The introductory essay integrates a retrospective survey of the development of adaptation studies with a forceful argument about their centrality to any history of culture any discussion that is of the transformation and transmission of texts and meanings in and across cultures The thirteen especially composed essays that follow organised into four sections headed Paradoxes of Fidelity Authors Auteurs Adaptation Contexts Intertexts Adaptation and Beyond Adaptation variously illustrate that claim by problematising the notion of fidelity highlighting the role played by adaptation in relation to changing concepts of authorship and auteurism exploring the extent to which the intelligibility of film adaptations is dependent on contextual and intertextual factors and making a claim for the need to transcend any narrowly defined concept of adaptation in the study of adaptation Discussion ranges from adaptations of established classics like A Tale of Two Cities Frankenstein Henry V Le temps retrouvé Mansfield Park Pride and Prejudice The Dead or Wuthering Heights to contemporary popular texts films like Bridget Jones's Diary Fools The Governess High Fidelity The Hours The Orchid Thief Adaptation the work of Doris D rrie the first Harry Potter novel film or the adaptations made by Alfred Hitchcock Stanley Kubrick and Walt Disney This book will appeal to both a specialised readership and to those accessing the dynamic field of adaptation studies for the first time Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only form analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the

The novels of David Foster Wallace Dave Eggers and Jonathan Safran Foer are increasingly regarded as representing a new trend an aesthetic sea change in contemporary American literature Post postmodernism and New Sincerity are just two of the labels that have been attached to this trend But what do these labels mean What characterizes and connects these novels Den Dulk shows that the connection between these works lies in their shared philosophical dimension On the one hand they portray excessive self reflection and endless irony as the two main problems of contemporary Western life On the other hand the novels embody an attempt to overcome these problems sincerity reality commitment and community are portrayed as the virtues needed to achieve a meaningful life This shared philosophical dimension is analyzed by viewing the novels in light of the existentialist philosophies of S ren Kierkegaard Jean Paul Sartre Ludwig Wittgenstein and Albert Camus     The Atlantic Monthly ,1902     Monthly Bulletin of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh,1904     The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1867     American Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular ,1863
