Dynamic Principles of Professional Development Caroline M. Crawford, Sandra L. Hardy, 2017-10-11 Dynamic principles of professional development are directly and indirectly defined and applied with no particular order of sequence as one or more of these principles may be activated in unison and revisited time and again in varied degrees and contexts throughout a professional's career Further this is by no means a list in the entirety of all professional principles pertaining to education but rather a representation of the basis for the dynamic interchange that transpires and elevates professional development that is energized and authentic These Dynamic Principles of Professional Development are as follows introspection participation collaboration transformation identification Dynamic principles of professional development both illustrate and apply standards and dispositions evident within real world classroom engagement and while working closely with teachers administrators and university based instructors Classroom teachers as associated teacher educators routinely demonstrate the characteristics of these dynamic principles of professional development in their practice These principles often reflect elements of effective teacher preparation Thus these dynamic principles of professional development illuminate the key qualities of classroom teachers as associated teacher educators Further these dynamic principles enrich and expand the evolving definition of classroom teachers as associated teacher educators as the central focus of this text
