The Metamorphoses Of The Circle:

The Metamorphoses of the Circle Georges Poulet, 1989 Romantic Vision, Ethical Context Géza von Molnár, 1986
Reflections on Exile Edward W. Said, 2025-10-21 From one of the world's most beloved and respected public intellectuals comes a collection of essays examining culture the literary canon and the ever shifting terrain of history This is surely a major work among the most provocative and cogent accounts of culture and the humanities that America has produced in recent years Martha C Nussbaum The New York Times Book Review Edward W Said's writings have transformed the field of literary studies In this bracing collection of essays one of the most beloved and respected public intellectuals of our time examines culture the literary canon and the ever shifting terrain of history Said's topics are many and diverse from the Hollywood heroics of Tarzan to the machismo of Ernest Hemingway to the shades of difference that divide Alexandria and Cairo In the title essay the widely admired Reflections on Exile he weighs his own estrangement from his home country and the fate of the Palestinian people against the literary canon's most romanticized fugitives What could be more intransigent than the conflict between Zionist Jews and Arab Palestinians Said asks Palestinians feel that they have been turned into exiles by the proverbial people of exile The culmination of thirty five years of scholarship Reflections on Exile and Other Essays is an invigorating and life affirming achievement a work of intellectual emotional and moral rigor The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 8, From Formalism to Poststructuralism George Alexander Kennedy, Raman Selden, 1989 Volume 8 of The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism deals with the most influential and hotly debated areas of literary theory those developing in Europe but having their main impact in the Anglo American world of academic literary studies whose course they have fundamentally redirected The structuralism poststructuralism Russian formalism semiotics narratology hermeneutics phenomenology reception theory and speech act theory associated with European writers including Barthes Todorov Derrida and Iser are here described in the context of their original development but with an eye also to their eventual influence and the volume includes a reflective chapter by Richard Rorty on deconstruction Incorporating full bibliographies this volume engages systematically with the history of the twentieth century's most profound and extensive set of cross cultural intellectual movements The Metamorphosis of Apuleius Pasquale J. Accardo, 2002 Lewis's Till We Have Faces being only one of the more notable recent retellings BOOK JACKET Of Saltimbanchi and Incendiari Anthony Julian Tamburri, 1990 This study examines Palazzeschi's early literary career 1905-15 and his major texts with specific focus on the relationship between his creative works and his three manifestos Lacerba 1914-15 Dante's Vision and the Circle of Knowledge Giuseppe Mazzotta, 2014-07-14 In a masterly synthesis of historical and literary analysis Giuseppe Mazzotta shows how medieval knowledge systems the cycle of the liberal arts ethics politics and theology interacted with poetry and elevated the Divine Comedy to a central position in shaping all other forms of discursive knowledge To trace the circle of Dante's intellectual concerns Mazzotta examines the structure and aims of medieval encyclopedias especially in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries the medieval classification of knowledge the battle of the arts the role of the imagination the tension between knowledge and vision and Dante's theological speculations in his constitution of what Mazzotta calls aesthetic ludic theology As a poet Dante puts himself at the center of intellectual debates of his time and radically redefines their configuration In this book Mazzotta offers powerful new readings of a poet who stands amid his culture's crisis and fragmentation one who responds to and counters them in his work In a critical gesture that enacts Dante's own insight Mazzotta's practice is also a fresh contribution to the theoretical literary debates of the present Originally published in 1992 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

The Mirror in the Text Lucien Dällenbach, 1989-07-27 The Mirror in the Text is concerned with the literary and artistic device of mise en abyme the use of an element within a work which mirrors the work as a whole like the play within a play in Hamlet In this classic study Lucien Dällenbach provides the first systematic analysis of this device and its literary and artistic applications from Van Eyck and Velasquez to Gide Beckett and the French nouveau roman Alongside this wealth of examples Dällenbach constructs his theoretical argument with elegance and clarity assuming no previous knowledge of arcane and specialized theory but guiding the reader helpfully through the maze of literary criticism The result is a new conceptual field a new grammar of the mise en abyme and an examination of its function within the work of art and literature The highly original study has been acclaimed as one of the most important works of contemporary literary theory It will be of interest to all students of English and European literature as well as to students of the visual arts
