Transitions Towards Recovery Lucy Webb, Guilherme Messas, Sarah Fox, 2023-12-15 Crime and Policing in Rural and

Small-Town America Ralph A. Weisheit, David N. Falcone, L. Edward Wells, 2005-09-21 While most researchers see the urban setting as being the only laboratory for studying crime problems throughout the United States Crime and Policing in Rural and Small Town America directly challenges this notion with an authoritative look at crime and the criminal justice system in rural America today The assumption that rural crime is rare and comparable across various communities has led to incompatible theories and irrelevant practices In order to transform this misconstruction the Third Edition offers a clear outline of the definition of rural and provides a vital argument for why rural and small town crime should be studied more than it is The book also explores the individual nature of issues that emerge in these communities including illegal drug production domestic violence agricultural crimes rural poverty and gangs in addition to the training needs of rural police probation in rural areas and rural jails and prisons Responding to rural crime requires an awareness of its context and how justice is carried out as well as an appreciation of how features vary across rural areas Understanding the relationships among crime geography and culture in the rural setting can reveal useful ideas and implications for crime and justice in communities across the United States Select Pleas in Manorial and Other Seignorial Courts Selden Society, 1889

Pitman's Journal of Commercial Education , 1901 Articulations of Resistance Sirène H. Harb, 2019-11-11 Using a theoretical framework located at the intersection of US ethnic studies transnational studies and postcolonial studies Articulations of Resistance Transformative Practices in Contemporary Arab American Poetry maps an interdisciplinary model of critical inquiry to demonstrate the intimate link and multilayered connections between poetry and resistance In this study of contemporary Arab American poetry Sir ne Harb analyzes how resistance defined as the force challenging the dominant intervenes in ways of rethinking the local and the global vis vis traditional paradigms of time space language and value

Islandscapes and Tourism Joseph M Cheer, Solène Prince, Philip Hayward, 2023-04-07 The links between islands and tourism as sights of pleasure is embodied in the touristification of sun sand and sea Islandscapes are central to the tourist imaginaries that shape islands as touristified places curated designed and commodified for both mass tourism and more niche inclined versions Yet while islands are parlayed for touristic pleasure seekers islands are also home to longstanding communities that have variously battled with the tyranny of distance from metropolitan centres as well as the everyday challenges of climate change effects and benefitted from their isolation from modern day pressures This anthology of articles previously published in the journal Shima explores emergent themes that describe how island peoples adapt and respond in localised cultural islandscapes as a consequence of tourism expansion It is aimed at researchers in island studies tourism sustainability human geography cultural studies sociology and anthropology The anthology will also be of interest to those with an abiding interest in the trajectories of islands and their peoples particularly where tourism has come to shape islandscapes Multicultural and Marginalized Voices of Postcolonial Literature Varun Gulati, Garima

Dalal, 2017-05-30 Women and the word marginalization have never remained oxymoronic the cross cultural texts and Engels interest on subjugation make a perfect recipe for this incongruity Multicultural and Marginalized Voices of Postcolonial Literature traces multifarious facets of marginalized literature across the world giving a brilliant overview of the historical roots of multiculturalist and marginalized sections The fourteen chapters relate key literary and cultural texts and cover a broad spectrum of historical linguistic and theoretical issues There are three sections in the book section I has four chapters dealing specifically theoretical constructions and representations Section II consists of four chapters that offer varied spectrum of discourses on world literature intersecting with the frameworks of literary theories Section III comprises six chapters that explore the mind of dalits subalterns colonial women and gender issues of a variety of Indian English Writers and draw varied perspectives of it Social Exclusion and Policies of Inclusion Smita Mishra Panda, Annapurna Devi Pandey, Supriya Pattanayak, 2022-05-07 This book brings together cross cultural perspectives on political economy of social exclusion and a critical view of policies of inclusion The themes covered are political economy of social exclusion inclusionary policy outcomes persistent challenges to social exclusion and rethinking social exclusion and inclusion The contexts are located in varied geographies including India South East Asia USA Canada Mexico Australia and Papua New Guinea The book throws light on how historically social inclusion of various excluded communities has always been a part of nation building with varying results Furthermore it highlights how the terrain of social exclusion is becoming increasingly complex today It provides the space to reimagine issues of inclusion and exclusion within the social policy landscape of a country It provides ways to rethink policies of inclusion such that dialogue between the excluded and the state is enhanced and the systems of seeking justice for a dignified life peace and freedom are improved It appeals to policy makers academicians and practitioners of development and social policy studies planning and governance in both developing and developed countries
