Frederick Arment,2014-01-10 This guide to nonviolent conflict resolution presents thirty methods of maintaining or achieving peace each with an in depth case study Methods covered and their real world applications include the art of diplomacy the 1995 Dayton Peace Accords fair trade the 1997 fair trade certification agreement civil disobedience the civil rights movement in the United States humanitarianism the rescue of the Hungarian Jews during the Holocaust the rule of law the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and peace education the Nobel Peace Prize among many others It concludes with a summary of the methods and the virtues of peace Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Inland Printer, American Lithographer ,1925 Inland and American Printer and Lithographer ,1925 Making the Frontier Man Matthew C. Ward,2023-11-14 For western colonists in the early American backcountry disputes often ended in bloodshed and death Making the Frontier Man examines early life and the origins of lawless behavior in Pennsylvania Virginia Kentucky and Ohio from 1750 to 1815 It provides a key to understanding why the trans Appalachian West was prone to violent struggles especially between white men Traumatic experiences of the Revolution and the Forty Years War legitimized killing as a means of self defense of property reputation and rights transferring power from the county courts to the ordinary citizen Backcountry men waged war against American Indians in state sponsored militias as they worked to establish farms and seize property in the West And white neighbors declared war on each other often taking extreme measures to resolve petty disputes that ended with infamous family feuds Making the Frontier Man focuses on these experiences of western expansion and how they influenced American culture and society specifically the nature of western manhood which radically transformed in the North American environment In search of independence and improvement the new American man was also destitute frustrated by the economic and political power of his elite counterparts and undermined by failure He was aggressive misogynistic racist and violent and looked to reclaim his dominance and masculinity by any means necessary
