The Oxford Of Australian Light Verse:

The Poetic Eye: Occasional Writings 1982-2012 Michael Sharkey, 2016-11-07 This volume contains a selection of the Australian poet Michael Sharkey's uncollected essays and occasional writings on poetics and poets chiefly Australian and New Zealand. Reviews and conversations with other poets highlight Sharkey's concern with preserving and interrogating cultural memory and his engagement with the practice and championing of poetry. Poets discussed range from Lord Byron to colonial era and early twentieth century poets Francis Adams, David McKee, Wright and Zora Cross, under-represented Australian women poets of World War I, traditionalists and experimentalists including several New Australian Poetry activists of the 1970s and contemporary Australian and New Zealand poets. Writings on poetics address form and tradition, the teaching and reception of poetry and canon formation. The collection is culled from commissioned and occasional contributions to anthologies of practical poetics, journals devoted to literary and cultural history and book reviewing as well as newspaper and small magazine features from the 1980s to the present. The writing reflects Sharkey's poetic practice and pedagogy relating to the teaching of literature, rhetorical analysis, cultural studies and writing in universities, schools and cultural organizations in Australia, New Zealand, China and Germany. It also evidences Sharkey's familiarity with literatures written in English and his wider career in publishing, editing, free lance journalism and the promotion of Australian and New Zealand literature, especially poetry. The Oxford Book of Australian Light Verse Robert Francis Brissenden, Philip Grundy, 1998 The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot, Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy. Authoritative and accessible, it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry.

Wild Reciter Peter Kirkpatrick, 2024-12-03 Just over a century ago poetry was all the rage in Australia. Newspapers and magazines published it, entertainers and elocutionists performed it on stages across the country and ordinary Australians recited it in schools, local halls and suburban parlours. Yet this communal experience of poetry has now largely disappeared. In The Wild Reciter Peter Kirkpatrick examines how this change occurred by exploring the shifting relationships between poetry and popular culture and in particular the arrival of new media taking the reader from penny readings and vaudeville to slam and Instapoetry. Many extraordinary yet wholly forgotten works are brought to light while some well known poems and their authors receive a critical makeover. The Man from Snowy River encounters the Wild West, Lesbia Harford turns singer-songwriter, Kenneth Slessor finds his groove, Yevgeny Yevtushenko blows up the Adelaide Festival, rock music inspires both John Laws and the Generation of '68, Dorothy Porter resorts to crime fiction and Clive James abandons media fame for poetic glory. This pioneering study reimagines the history of Australian verse to arrive at a more expansive notion of poetry.

A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts, 2008-04-15 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism

Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century

The Oxford Magazine, 1911 Aberration in Modern Poetry Lucy Collins, Stephen Matterson, 2011-12-22 This critical work considers the role played by elements that might be considered aberrational in a poet's oeuvre With an introductory essay exploring the nature of aberration these fourteen contributions investigate the work of major 20th century poets from the U S Britain Ireland Australia and New Zealand

Aberration is considered from the standpoint of both the artist and the audience prompting discussion on a range of important issues including the formation of the canon Each essay discusses the status of the aberrant work and the ways in which it challenges enlarges or supports the overall perception of the poet
