This book undertakes a critical reappraisal of Minimalism through an examination of three key painters Robert Mangold David Novros and Jo Baer By establishing their substantive engagements with Minimalist discourse as well as their often overlooked artistic exchanges with their sculptor peers it demonstrates that painting crucially informed the movement s development serving not only as an object of critique but also as a crucible for its most central tenets It also poses broader disciplinary implications as it historicizes and challenges Minimalism s death of painting critiques that have been so influential to theories of modernism and postmodernism in the visual arts

Abstract Painting in Canada Roald

Nasgaard,Art Gallery of Nova Scotia,2008 In the tradition of the distinguished Douglas McIntyre art program this lavishly illustrated and superbly printed book is a rich readable history of abstract painting in Canada The story begins in the 1920s with the sometimes eccentric but remarkable work rooted in symbolism and theosophy of pioneers such as Kathleen Munn Bertram Brooker and Lawren Harris Two decades later the Automatistes Canada's first truly independent avant garde art movement burst onto the scene in Montreal After the Second World War the urge to abstraction spread across Canada manifesting itself in significant regional movements Vancouver painters retained a British flavour while in Toronto the Painters Eleven looked south to New York Montreal's Plasticiens launched their own razor edged interpretation of the European tradition of geometric abstraction In the sixties and seventies the Prairies were influenced by Clement Greenberg's post painterly abstraction while Halifax became a hub of conceptual art and concrete painting The book continues through the eighties and nineties during which critics largely denounced painting and concludes in the twenty first century with abstract painting alive and well again in the studios of Canada's young artists A monumental tome containing 200 color reproductions it mines a rich vein of art history ripe for international discovery Irregularities in the Performance of Painting Contracts on Federal Facilities in the Washington Area United States.
