The Rift V. Y. Mudimbe, 1993 The Rift explores textuality writing solitude and death in the context of contemporary African life and at the same time examines the constitution and materiality of African subjectivity V Y Mudimbe's writing is provocative demanding and distinctly modernist In its compelling exploration of the production of African knowledge within or outside the interstices of imperial space The Rift contributes significantly to contemporary debates about the liminal subject split to use Homi Bhabha's phrase between the here and the there and most important about issues of power and post colonial epistemology

The Murmuring Coast Lídia Jorge, 1995 This captivating tale is told in two parts The first presents Lidia Jorge's version of a traditional story about a series of supposed incidents set in Beira Mozambique The events take place in the final years of Portugal's colonial African wars as an undisclosed narrator describes the military wedding of a young Portuguese ensign and an equally young bride The wedding is followed by the mass poisoning of hundreds of native Africans and the arrival of a rain of locusts The story ends grimly with the groom's suicide Evita Lopo the unnamed bride from the first part narrates the remainder of the story Twenty years have gone by and she reviews the past and questions the unidentified narrator's rendering of events in the first section Evita's reminiscences destroy the credibility of the earlier story and she supplies the reader with a great deal of information that the author of the previous account had suppressed or to which he or she merely alluded It becomes apparent that betrayal and guilt have motivated all of the characters' actions

First Days of the Year Hélène Cixous, 1998 An inner journey across space and time linking the author to other poets this lyrical essay poem continues Helene Cixous's rewriting of notions of boundary self other and author Cixous here interrogates the status of the author connecting distant instances of herself with other writers who traverse genders generations and national boundaries First Days of the Year is a celebration of beginnings and future possibilities based on necessity and hope constantly mediating writing and living life and death Like all of Cixous's profoundly original works it seductively leads the reader into a new way of thinking by disrupting fixed ideas of psychic identity subjectivity and language
