Passover or Pesach is the first of seven appointed feasts of the Lord ordained by the Lord to commemorate the departure of the Hebrew nation from Egypt. As commanded in the Torah: "You shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days; you are to eat unleavened bread as I commanded you at the appointed time in the month Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt. And they shall not appear before Me empty-handed." Exodus 23:15. The Torah, the first five books of Moses, is the written word of God, and the instructions and rituals for the holidays were passed down in the oral law. Every year in the spring, Jews around the world will prepare a seder as a memorial to the original Passover event and in the same prescribed order given at Mt. Sinai over 3,000 years ago. It is important to God that the teachings and history of the Jewish people be preserved and passed down to all generations. As we read through the Haggadah, you will notice the introduction of a dash in the spellings of God and Lord. According to Jewish law and tradition, it was forbidden to erase or discard any written document with the names of our Creator or even speak His

Hebrew name Yod He Vav He The word Jehovah is used by Christians to pronounce the four letters of the tetragrammaton and the name Adonai is substituted when reading the Holy Scriptures or Torah The true pronunciation of His Name has been lost With great respect we will reverence His holy name by continuing this tradition The symbolism in the seder meal will remind us that G d remembered His people in bondage and He had a plan for their deliverance For This We Left Egypt? Dave Barry, Alan Zweibel, Adam Mansbach, 2017-03-07 A hilarious parody of the Passover Haggadah from three award winning comedy writers

Joel B. Wolowelsky, 2005 Women at the Seder is a traditional Passover Haggadah whose commentary celebrates one of the great transformations of the Torah community during this past century the emergence of women from the privacy of their home tents to the public arena of the synagogue and Torah study halls without abandoning in any way their central traditional role as the cornerstone of the home and family The Rabbis had long ago acknowledged that it was in the merit of our righteous women that Israel was redeemed from slavery The Passover seder the home celebration of our national liberation is an appropriate place to acknowledge and honor women's expanded role in our public as well as private religious life The commentary includes rabbinic comments on women associated with the Exodus a discussion of those relevant aspects of Jewish law that apply to women and homilies divrei Torah by women for the seder many written especially for this volume In a generation it should seem quaint that it was noteworthy that women's divrei Torah constituted a significant part of a Haggadah commentary That will be cause for yet additional rejoicing as women's contributions on all levels of Torah scholarship will have become even more commonplace
