communist period and its aftermath The plays included in the collection edited and translated by Jozefina Komporaly and fully published for the first time in English demonstrate broad variety in terms of form and content ranging from family dramas to allegories and absurdist experiments to modular texts rooted in open dramaturgy and are the work of both individual playwrights and the results of collective creation These works share a preoccupation with critically reflecting urgent concerns rooted in Romanian realities and are notable dramaturgical experiments that push the boundaries of the genre In addition these plays also seek novel ways to examine universal experiences of the human condition such as love loss abuse betrayal grief violence manipulation and despair This unique anthology celebrates the renewed vitality and variety of writing for the stage after 1990 and endeavours to place Romanian theatre in a forward looking transnational context

Lowlands Niederungen by Herta Müller adapted for the stage by Mihaela Panainte German This stage adaptation is based on a volume of short stories by Herta Müller written in German in 1982 and focuses on the perspective of a child narrator by way of a series of episodes that centre on mundane aspects of daily life in a remote village against the backdrop of the oppressive atmosphere of mid twentieth century Romania

The Spectator Sentenced to Death Spectatorul condamnat la moarte by Mari Visniec Romanian This play is a bitter parody of the Stalinist justice system which totally disregards the fundamental question whether the accused is actually guilty or not

The Passport Kalucsni by György Dragomán Hungarian This play is set pre 1989 in a typical small town in the Transylvanian province of Romania in which the lives of the various social classes and the fate of the persecuted and that of those who persecute are closely intertwined

The Man Who Had His Inner Evil Removed Omul din care a fost extras răul by Mari Visniec Romanian This topical play is a sharp reflection on the voluntary servitude in which we place ourselves often unawares in conditions of our contemporary consumer culture and a fierce critique of increasingly dominant tendencies to abandon moral criteria in political life

Stories of the Body Artemisia Eva Lina Teresa A test t rt netei by András Visky Hungarian The cycle Stories of the Body comprises four plays based on real life stories as experienced by remarkable women including Mother Teresa and Italian Renaissance painter Artemisia Gentileschi and are connected to various cities including Budapest Cluj Kolozsvár Kolkata and Rome from the 17th to the 21st century
