The Past Wont End:

I Will Finish and I Won't Be Last Sally Ann Whitney, 2020-01-29 At the age of nine Sally Whitney's marathon journey began At an Arizona ranch Sally Whitney was suddenly thrown headfirst from a runaway horse Landing on her head she suffered a traumatic brain injury resulting in partial paralysis on the left side of her body and a three week coma She struggled unsuccessfully to reenter the social life of a ten year old Still in social isolation many years down the road she rehabilitated the best she could on her own One of her efforts to continue her lifelong road of rehab and due to the fitness craze in 1982 she found herself in the presence of a nearby gym As Sally limped into the gym the manager offered her entry blank for the Phoenix 10K Race being held the very next day Sally took the entry blank as a courtesy The pamphlet's heading caught her attention thus presenting her with another challenge It read RUN JOG WALK OR CRAWL THE PHOENIX 10K She thought What the heck I can crawl Doors she opened before this conquest getting a job for instance and other triumphs taken for granted by many became huge barriers for the brain injured Sally though couldn't or wouldn't back down from life's challenges Besides being a thriving member of her Senior Citizen Independent Living Apartment Complex she continues after thirty six years to actively participate in 5K walks to the cheers of many in the Phoenix area In 2013 she was admitted to the Arizona Runners Hall of Fame Sally has written a book explaining how she used her courage to enter adulthood It is also her desire to give if only a glimmer of hope to those who need to hear that when the going got tough the tough got tougher and took life one small stride at a time

Won't Stop Moving Sam Creedon-Gray, 2023-11-10 Sometimes the answer isn't to be the rock in the river letting the water wash over you Sometimes the answer is to be the leaf floating down the stream and rolling with the constant change that is life Won't Stop Moving is designed to help you remember the lessons that you have forgotten to remember This book gives you the opportunity to remind yourself of what you already know deep in your soul You can't stop moving and you won't stop moving growing and evolving This is an oracle book It works like oracle cards but rather than shuffling turn to the page number you're called to and receive a message that you are ready to learn or remember Or read the book sequentially Or front to back back to front inside out or outside in Read it upside down if you want but I wouldn't recommend it You choose You will be called to the lessons you need Trust the process Trust your instincts

Talking About Death Won't Kill You Dr. Kathy Kortess-Miller, 2018-03-06 This practical handbook will equip readers with the tools to have meaningful conversations about death and dying Death is a part of life We used to understand this and in the past loved ones generally died at home with family around them But in just a few generations death has become a medical event and we have lost the ability to make this last part of life more personal and meaningful Today people want to regain control over health care decisions for themselves and their loved ones Talking About Death Won't Kill You is the essential handbook to help Canadians navigate personal and medical decisions for the best quality of life for the end of our lives Noted palliative care educator and researcher Kathy Kortess-Miller shows readers how to identify and reframe limiting beliefs about dying with humor and compassion With robust resource lists Kortes Miller addresses advance care plans for ourselves and our loved ones how to have conversations about end of life wishes with loved ones how to talk to children about death how to build a compassionate workplace practical strategies to support our colleagues how to talk to health care practitioners how to manage challenging family dynamics as someone is dying what is involved in medical assistance in dying MAID Far from morbid these conversations are full of meaning and life and the relief that comes from knowing what your loved ones want and what you want for yourself

I'll Close My Eyes (but I Won't be Asleep) Elisa Adler, 2012 Delusion dementia or discourse A daughter insists on the latter and with the threads of her mother's narratives weaves for them a raft of words These conversations unlike anything I'd shared with her before shocked me I was glad they happened only when we were alone together I'd never even thought these things I heard us say didn't know where they came from But since they seemed to make sense to her I kept inviting her to speak She'd say something I'd listen say something back we were together in words As if what we said to each other arose not from our own learning or experience but some underlying chord that included our voices but was bigger spoke through them as if the sound of the ocean were encoded in the sounds of the rain I'll Close My Eyes But I Won't Be Asleep sounds an intimate heartbreaking and sometimes humorous end of life chord in a mother and daughter relationship A compelling memoir I'll Close My Eyes But I Won't Be Asleep is an honest account of what for most of us remains hidden and unheard It will be useful for anyone torn by conflicting desires and demands battered by memory grief and rage and struggling to give care Elisa Adler studied at the University of California Berkeley Mills College and in Bogota Colombia at Centro de Estudios Colombo Americanos She has worked as a newspaper reporter translator interpreter laborer and domestic teaches English and Spanish at colleges in California and Nevada and farms with her daughter and husband in the northern Sierra
