Du Bois's Telegram Juliana Spahr, 2018-10-23 In 1956 W E B Du Bois was denied a passport to attend the Presence Africaine Congress of Black Writers and Artists in Paris So he sent the assembled a telegram Any Negro American who travels abroad today must either not discuss race conditions in the United States or say the sort of thing which our State Department wishes the world to believe Taking seriously Du Bois's allegation Juliana Spahr breathes new life into age old questions as she explores how state interests have shaped U S literature What is the relationship between literature and politics Can writing be revolutionary Can art be autonomous or is escape from nations and nationalisms impossible Du Bois's Telegram brings together a wide range of institutional forces implicated in literary production paying special attention to three eras of writing that sought to defy political orthodoxies by contesting linguistic conventions avant garde modernism of the early twentieth century social movement writing of the 1960s and 1970s and in the twenty first century the profusion of English language works incorporating languages other than English Spahr shows how these literatures attempted to assert their autonomy only to be shut down by FBI harassment or coopted by CIA and State Department propagandists Liberal state allies such as the Ford and Rockefeller foundations made writers complicit by funding multiculturalist works that celebrated diversity and assimilation while starving radical anti imperial anti racist anti capitalist efforts Spahr does not deny the exhilarations of politically engaged art But her study affirms a sobering reality aesthetic resistance is easily domesticated The Routledge Handbook of Pidgin and Creole Languages Umberto Ansaldi, Miriam Meyerhoff, 2020-11-29 The Routledge Handbook of Pidgin and Creole Languages offers a state of the art collection of original contributions in the area of Pidgin and Creole studies Providing unique and equal coverage of nearly all parts of the world where such languages are found as well as situating each area within a rich socio historical context this book presents fresh and diverse interdisciplinary perspectives from leading voices in the field Divided into three sections its analysis covers Space and place areal perspective on pidgin and creole languages Usage function and power sociolinguistic and artistic perspectives on pidgins and creoles creoles as sociocultural phenomena Framing of the study of pidgin and creole languages history of the field interdisciplinary connections Demonstrating how fundamentally human and natural these communication systems are how rich in expressive power and sophisticated in their complexity The Routledge Handbook of Pidgin and Creole Languages is an essential reference for anyone with an interest in this area Alchemies of Distance Caroline Sinavaiana, 2001 Poetry Essay Asian American Studies Sinavaiana Gabbard draws her imaginative strength and mana from the fertile depths of her Samoan people s mythologies past and wisdom as well as from the cultural soil of North American and Tibetan Buddhism Her voice is a new blend of Samoan American and widely ranging poetic and philosophical languages A unique vibrant undeniable voice which shapes the now fearlessly with profound understanding and forgiveness Albert Wendt University of Auckland Published by Subpress Tinfish Institute of Pacific Studies Herd Register American Jersey Cattle Club, 1915 The Present State of Scholarship in the History of Rhetoric Lynée Lewis Gaillet, Winifred Bryan Horner, 2010-03-15 Through two previous editions The Present State of Scholarship in Historical and Contemporary Rhetoric has not only introduced new scholars to interdisciplinary research but also become a standard research tool in a number of fields and pointed the way toward future study Adopting research methodologies of revision and recovery this latest edition includes all new material while still following the format of the original and is constructed around bibliographical surveys of both primary and secondary works addressing the Classical Medieval Renaissance and eighteenth through twentieth century periods within the history of rhetoric The Present State of Scholarship in the History of Rhetoric doesn t simply update but rather recasts study in the history of rhetoric The authors experienced and well known scholars in their respective fields redefine existing strands of rhetorical study within the periods expand the scope of rhetorical engagement and include additional figures and their works The globalization and expansion of rhetoric are demonstrated in each of these parts and seen clearly in the inclusion of more female rhetors discussions of historical and contemporary electronic resources and examinations of rhetorical practices falling outside the academy and the traditional canon New to this edition is a cumulative review of twentieth century rhetoric along with a thematic index designed to facilitate interdisciplinary or specialized study and scholarly research across the traditional historical periods As programs incorporating rhetorical studies continue to expand at the university level students and researchers are in need of up to date bibliographical resources No other work matches the scope and approach of The Present State of Scholarship in the History of Rhetoric which carries scholarship on rhetoric into the twenty first century
