V. Gershuni, 1970

The Autonomy of European Union Agencies Martijn Groenleer, 2009 Learning About Politics in Time and Space Richard Rose, 2014-12-01 Richard Rose's memoir vividly describes first hand experience of the transformation of politics in Europe and the United States since 1940 He has been teargassed in Chicago seen walls go up in Belfast and come down in Berlin The author's education in the streets and in the corridors of political power give a unique perspective on discrimination by race religion and class and the world in which political scientists live today Rose has distilled a 500 page book into a three minute Oval Office explanation to George W Bush of why America's intervention in Iraq was a disaster He gives practical advice to political scientists about how to make words into concepts and communicate what you know to others inside and outside universities The book's photographs show memorials to the dead and living evidence of how election forecasting has changed since Delphi Using skills developed since teaching himself to type at the age of eight Rose describes his 20 years of working in newspapers radio and television before publishing his first book Since then he has combined social science methodology along with the methodologies of comparative drama and the applied arts to write many innovative books This is the latest The Government and Politics of the European Union Neill Nugent, 2006 A clear and comprehensive explanation of the historical development and ongoing evolution of the European Union EU revised and updated in this sixth edition

EU Foreign Policy and Hamas Adeeb Ziadeh, 2017-10-20 Shortly after the overwhelming victory of Hamas in the 2006 parliamentary and municipal elections civil war broke out in the Gaza Strip between members of the two factions Hamas and Fatah The EU along with the US UN and Russia not only gave its support to Fatah against Hamas but also imposed a tough siege on the Hamas government in an attempt to force it to accept the Quartet's political conditions described by Hamas leaders as unfair and impossible Many observers are convinced that the EU's behaviour in this matter has been unreasonable and has conflicted with the EU's own democratic beliefs and values This book sheds light on the EU's policies in Palestine mainly from 2003 2013 and provides a thorough examination of the inconsistencies and paradoxes in the EU discourse towards Hamas and the determinants underlying such contradictions It explores the reasons behind the EU labelling the Hamas a terrorist organization and discusses why the EU has boycotted its democratically elected body since 2006 Significantly the book looks at whether the EU jeopardized its reputation and contravened its core normative values and objectives democracy promotion human rights the rule of law and fundamental freedoms by such a categorisation of Hamas Exploring the EU's policy towards Hamas is vital for understanding how the relationship between the EU and the rest of the Islamists in the Middle East is perceived as it enables both sides to have a cognitive basis upon which to construct better relations This book based upon a vast spread of primary EU documents and interviews will therefore be a valuable resource for those studying the Arab Israeli conflict Political Islamic movements the Middle East Peace Process and anyone with an interest in European Union Foreign Policy

The European Union in the 21st Century Nikolaos Zahariadis, 2023-08-24 The European Union in the 21st Century takes a fresh look at a complex and ever changing organization by examining its pursuit of two very different objectives power security and political weight and plenty economic growth and social welfare Nikolaos Zahariadis aims to help students understand these two objectives and how the tension between them affects different issue areas illuminating how each objective represents a different perspective on what the EU is and what it does The book also introduces students to the systematic thinking that political scientists employ to see the connections between policies institutions and actors By unpacking the various perspectives students will gain greater insight into how policymakers think and why EU leaders make the kinds of decisions they do

Europe, Discourse, and Institutions Cristian Nitoiu, Nikola Tomic, 2014-07-25 This book focuses on how discourse and various narratives contribute to the construction of the European Union as a political actor thus seeking to challenge the more established approaches to the study of the Union It sheds light on the way discourses about the European Union are created perpetuated and then translated into policy outcomes Most of the contributions attempt to account for the differences that usually arise between discourse and policy practices The methods employed range from more traditional variants of discourse analysis to other more radical versions that emphasize power or to critical or differential reading of policy narratives and ethnography Policy areas such as trade enlargement foreign policy and the European Neighbourhood Policy ENP are discussed while a particular interest is awarded to the European Parliament and the Commission In doing so the contributions shed light on the role discourse plays in relation to policies institutional practices and value representations at the European level Moreover the authors analyse the different actors and structures that create and perpetuate discourses within the EU highlighting new insights that a focus on discourse can bring to the field of European Union studies This book was published as a special issue of Perspectives on European Politics and Society
