Skeleton Green A Late Iron Age And Romanobritish Site Britannia Monograph Series No :

Birds, Beasts and Burials: A study of the human-animal relationship in Romano-British St. Albans Brittany Elayne Hill, 2017-04-30 Birds Beasts and Burials examines human animal relationships as found in the mortuary record within the area of Verulamium that is now situated in the modern town of St Albans A Biography of Power: Research and Excavations at the Iron Age 'oppidum' of Bagendon, Gloucestershire (1979-2017) Tom Moore, 2020-07-30 This book explores the changing nature of power and identity from the Iron Age to the Roman period in Britain It provides fresh insights into the origins and nature of one of the lesser known but perhaps most significant Late Iron Age oppida in Britain Bagendon in Gloucestershire Making a Mint: Comparative Studies in Late Iron Age Coin Mould Mark Landon, 2016-08-15 This book presents the first large scale comparative study of Iron Age coin mould Iron Age minting techniques reveal a great deal about Iron Age political organisation and economy that has until now remained largely unreported Romano-British Settlement and Cemeteries at Mucking Sam Lucy, Christopher Evans, 2016-11-30 Excavations at Mucking Essex between 1965 and 1978 revealed extensive evidence for a multiphase rural Romano British settlement perhaps an estate center and five associated cemetery areas 170 burials with different burial areas reserved for different groups within the settlement The settlement demonstrated clear continuity from the preceding Iron Age occupation with unbroken sequences of artefacts and enclosures through the first century AD followed by rapid and extensive remodeling which included the laying out a Central Enclosure and an organized water supply with wells accompanied by the start of large scale pottery production After the mid second century AD the Central Enclosure was largely abandoned and settlement shifted its focus more to the Southern Enclosure system with a gradual decline though the 3rd and 4th centuries although continued burial pottery and artefactual deposition indicate that a form of settlement continued possibly with some low level pottery production Some of the latest Roman pottery was strongly associated with the earliest Anglo Saxon style pottery suggesting the existence of a terminal Roman settlement phase that essentially involved an Anglo Saxon community Given recent revisions of the chronology for the early Anglo Saxon period this casts an intriguing light on the transition with radical implications for understandings of this period Each of the cemetery areas was in use for a considerable length of time Taken as a whole Mucking was very much a component place complex it was its respective parts that fostered its many cemeteries whose diverse rites reflect the variability and roles of the settlement s evidently varied inhabitants Prehistoric Britain Timothy Darvill, 2010-07-02 Prehistoric Britain now in its second edition examines the development of human societies in Britain from earliest times to the Roman conquest of AD 43 as revealed by archaeological evidence Special attention is given to six themes which are traced through prehistory subsistence technology ritual trade society and population Roman Finds Richard Hingley, Steven Willis, 2007-04-10 Studies on finds in Roman Britain and the Western Provinces have come to greater prominence in the literature of recent years The quality of such work has also improved and is now theoretically informed and based on rich data sets Work on finds over the last decade or two has changed our understanding of the Roman era in profound ways and yet despite such encouraging advances and such clear worth there has to date been little in the way of a dedicated forum for the presentation and evaluation of current approaches to the study of material culture The conference at which these papers were initially presented has gone some way to redressing this and these papers bring the very latest studies on Roman finds to a wider audience Twenty papers are here presented covering various themes

Skeleton Green : a late Iron age and Romano-British site Clive Partridge, 1981 The Romano-British Roadside Settlement at Wilcote, Oxfordshire Anthony R. Hands, Arthur Robinson Hands, 1998 Neither towns nor villas the function of Roman road side settlements has previously been regarded as a mystery Wilcote however has now been thoroughly investigated and Anthony Hands suggests in this publication that it may have functioned as both a watering post for travellers along Akeman Street and as a kind of navvies encampment for road maintenance connected with large quarries reported on in this volume The 1993 1996 finds report contains details of coins pottery and metal objects of quite high value compared with the negligible architecture Do the finds reflect the inhabitants of the settlement or the passing trade With stimulating commentary on some of the theoretical issues generated by this long running excavation as well as fine illustration of the discoveries this is an excellent excavation report

The Early Roman Empire in the West T. F. C. Blagg, Martin Millett, 2016-12-31 Digital reprint of this important collection of papers which form the companion to Early Roman Empire in the East Oxbow 1997 Fourteen contributions examine the interaction of Roman and native peoples in the formative years of the Roman provinces in Italy Gaul Spain and Portugal Germany and Britain Contents Introduction Thomas Blagg and Martin Millett The creation of provincial landscape the Roman impact on Cisalpine Gaul Nicholas Purcell Romanization a point of view Richard Reece Romanization historical issues and archaeological interpretation Martin Millett The romanization of Belgic Gaul Colin Haselgrove Lower Germany proto urban settlement developments and the integration of native society J H F Bloemers Relations between Roman occupation and the Limesvorland in the province of Germania Inferior Jurgen Kunow Early Roman military installations and Ubian settlements in the Lower Rhine Michael Gechter Some observations on acculturation process at the edge of the Roman world S D Trow Processes in the development of the coastal communities of Hispania Citerior in the Republican period Simon Keay Romanization and urban development in Lusitania Jonathan Edmondson Urban munificence and the growth of urban consciousness in Roman Spain Nicola Mackie First century Roman houses in Gaul and Britain T F C Blagg Towards an assessment of the economic and social consequences of the Roman conquest of Gaul J F Drinkwater The emergence of Romano Celtic religion Anthony King Skeleton Green Clive Partridge, 1981
