"Remain in Your Calling" J. Brian Tucker, 2011-11-07 Remain in Your Calling explores the way the Apostle Paul negotiates and transforms existing social identities of the Corinthian Christ followers in order to extend his gentile mission Building on the findings of Tucker's first monograph You Belong to Christ Paul and the Formation of Social Identity in 1 Corinthians 1-4 this work expands the focus to the rest of 1 Corinthians The study addresses the way Paul forms Christ movement identity and the kind of identity that emerges from his kinship formation It examines the way previous Jewish and gentile social identities continue but are also transformed in Christ It then provides case studies from 1 Corinthians that show the way social scientific criticism and ancient source material provide insights concerning Paul's formational goals The first looks at the way Roman water practices and patronage influence baptismal practices in Corinth The next uncovers the challenges associated with the transformation of the Roman household when it functions as sacred space within the ekklesia The final study investigates the way Paul uses apocalyptic discourse to recontextualize the Corinthians identity in order to remind them that God rather than the Roman Empire is in control of history Disturbing Argument Catherine

Palczewski, 2015-01-30 This edited volume represents the best of the scholarship presented at the 18th National Communication Association American Forensic Association Conference on Argumentation This biennial conference brings together a lively group of argumentation scholars from a range of disciplinary approaches and a variety of countries Disturbing Argument contains selected works that speak both to the disturbing prevalence of violence in the contemporary world and to the potential of argument itself to disturb the very relations of power that enable that violence Scholars essays analyze a range of argument forms including body and visual argument interpersonal and group argument argument in electoral politics public argument argument in social protest scientific and technical argument and argument and debate pedagogy Contributors study argument using a range of methodological approaches from social scientifically informed studies of interpersonal group and political argument to humanistic examinations of argument theory political discourse and social protest to creatively informed considerations of argument practices that truly disturb the boundaries of what we consider argument Organizational Communication Theory and Research Vernon D.
