The Hump:

The Hump John D. Plating, 2011-02-08 Chronicling the most ambitious airlift in history Carried out over arguably the world's most rugged terrain in its most inhospitable weather system and under the constant threat of enemy attack the trans Himalayan airlift of World War II delivered nearly 740 000 tons of cargo to China making it possible for Chinese forces to wage war against Japan This operation dwarfed the supply delivery by land over the Burma and Ledo Roads and represented the fullest expression of the U S government's commitment to China In this groundbreaking work the first concentrated historical study of the world's first sustained combat airlift operation John D Plating argues that the Hump airlift was initially undertaken to serve as a display of American support for its Chinese ally which had been at war with Japan since 1937 However by 1944 with the airlift's capability gaining momentum American strategists shifted the purpose of air operations to focus on supplying American forces in China in preparation for the U S's final assault on Japan From the standpoint of war materiel the airlift was the precondition that made possible all other allied military action in the China Burma India theater where Allied troops were most commonly inserted supplied and extracted by air Drawing on extensive research that includes Chinese and Japanese archives Plating tells a spellbinding story in a context that relates it to the larger movements of the war and reveals its significance in terms of the development of military air power The Hump demonstrates the operation's far reaching legacy as it became the example and prototype of the Berlin Airlift the first air battle of the Cold War The Hump operation also bore significantly on the initial moves of the Chinese Civil War when Air Transport Command aircraft moved entire armies of Nationalist troops hundreds of miles in mere days in order to prevent Communist forces from being the ones to accept the Japanese surrender China Airlift--the Hump, 1980 Master of the Air Robert A. Slayton, 2010-03-18 When the western Allies moved to consolidate their areas of control in occupied Germany the USSR responded by cutting off land access to West Berlin holding over two million residents of that city hostage in an aggressive act of brinkmanship General William Henry Tunner was given a task that seemed doomed to failure to supply a major city by air with everything it needed to survive from food to a winter's supply of coal and made it a brilliant success astonishing the world in a major public relations defeat for the Soviets and demonstrating the unexpected capacity of air fleets in a postwar world LIFE, 1944-09-11 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use Hearings United States.
