Front Stuart Finkel, 2008-10-01 On the Ideological Front centres on the 1922-23 expulsion from Soviet Russia of some 100 prominent intellectuals Finkel's account is a scholarly examination of this which sets it in the context of Bolshevik curbs prohibitions and punishment of intellectuals who resisted ideological conformity Proceedings of The 5th International Conference on Linguistics and Cultural Studies 5 (ICLC-5 2024) Muhammad Hasyim, Mardi Adi Armin, Yusuf Yusuf, 2025-05-19 This is an open access book Research and teaching activities in the fields of language literature and culture are still being carried out even during the Covid 19 era that hit the world It is undeniable that the results of research and learning of language literature and culture at this time were a bit hindered because most activities were carried out from home During the Covid 19 period which started in early 2020 practically more activities were done at home Likewise institutions during the Covid 19 era were carried out online For example the Language Agency continues to carry out activities but it is carried out online such as online webinars that contribute to the wider community in accordance with the duties and functions of the Language Agency carried out using a hybrid method or completely online Various events are packaged creatively and innovatively to produce a new spirit in speaking Research and teaching of language literature and culture during the Covid 19 period resulted in many amazing innovations and creativity in line with technological developments Covid 19 has inspired many in research on language literature and culture In the field of language you can see research on the language used in Covid 19 such as said cases of suspected respiratory tract infection ODP People Under Monitoring confirmed cases a person who is late known to be infected with Covid 19 etc That's the content Content on YouTube about the use of language is a hot object of research to research In terms of culture the Government is making various efforts to break the chain of the spread of the Covid 19 pandemic in a massive and systematic manner Covid 19 is not only a deadly virus but has a domino effect that is also terrible One of the policies used by the government in preventing and controlling the spread of Covid 19 is implementing the Large Scale Social Restrictions PSBB policy As an investment culture also requires strategies and enablers so that it is able to achieve the target of the happiness and welfare of the Indonesian people This strategy is implemented through providing for a diversity of cultural expressions developing cultural practices utilizing cultural promotion objects accelerating institutional reform and increasing the government's role as a facilitator Teaching issues especially teaching methods of language literature and culture need to be highlighted in terms of IT based innovation and creativity after Covid 19 How especially teaching methods in applying the material Research on learning methods has also been carried out a lot especially methods that focus on students entering the new normal era or the new era after Covid 19 with innovative research and learning of language literature and culture It is interesting to reveal a major event namely the 3rd International Conference on Linguistics and Cultural Studies sponsored by the Faculty of Cultural Sciences Hasanuddin University Makassar Khrushchev's Thaw and National Identity in Soviet Azerbaijan, 1954-1959 Jamil Hasanli, 2014-12-18 On February 25 1956 Soviet leader Nikita S Khrushchev delivered the so called secret speech in the Twentieth Party Congress of the CPSU in which he denounced Stalin's transgressions and the cult of personality around the deceased dictator. Replete with sharp criticism of the Terror of the late 1930s, the unpreparedness of the USSR for the Nazi invasion, numerous wartime blunders and the deportation of various nationalities, the speech reverberated throughout the subordinate Soviet republics. For republics such as Azerbaijan, the speech was an unmistakable signal to readjust the entire political orientation and figure out ways to redefine governance in post-Stalin era. Previously frozen under the mortal threat of Stalinist persecution, various forms of national self-expression began to experience rapid revival under the Khrushchev thaw. Encouraged by the winds of change at the Center, the Azeris cautiously began to reclaim possession of their administrative domain. Among other local initiatives, the declaration of the Azerbaijani language as the official language was one step that stood out in its audacity for it was not pre-arranged with the Kremlin and defied the modus operandi of the Soviet leadership. Somewhat reformist in his intentions yet ignorant of the non-Slavic peripheries, Mr. Khrushchev had not foreseen the scenarios that would unfold as a result of its new tone and the developments that would come to be interpreted as the rise of nationalism in the republics. Jamil Hasanli's research on 1950s Azerbaijan sheds light on this watershed period in Soviet history while also furnishing the reader with a greater understanding of the root causes of the dissolution of the USSR.

Aesthetics of Alienation Evgeny Dobrenko, 2005-05-16 This provocative work takes issue with the idea that Socialist Realism was mainly the creation of party leaders and was imposed from above on the literati who lived and worked under the Soviet regime. Evgeny Dobrenko, a leading expert on Soviet literature, argues instead and offers persuasive evidence that the aesthetic theories underpinning Socialist Realism arose among the writers themselves, born of their proponents' desire for power in the realm of literary policymaking. Accordingly, Dobrenko closely considers the evolution of these theories, deciphering the power relations and social conditions that helped to shape them. In chapters on Proletkult, RAPP, LEF, and Pereval, Dobrenko reexamines the theories generated by these major Marxist literary groupings of the early Soviet Union. He shows how each approached the problems of literature's response to the presumed social mandate of the young communist society and how Socialist Realism emerged as a conglomerate of these earlier revolutionary theories. With extensive and detailed reference to supporting testimony and documents, Dobrenko clearly demonstrates how Socialist Realism was created from within the revolutionary culture and how this culture and its disciples fully participated in this creative process. His work represents a major breakthrough in our current understanding of the complex sources that contributed to early Soviet culture.
