The Intellectual Origin Of Islamic Jihad In Nigeria:

Sultan, Caliph and the Renewer of the Faith Mauro Nobili, 2020-03-19 A significant re examination of the T r kh al fatt sh revealing it to be a crucial nineteenth century source for history in West Africa Darfur and the Crisis of Governance in Sudan Salah M. Hassan, Carina E. Ray, 2009 This book provides the most comprehensive balanced and nuanced account yet published of the Darfur conflict s roots and the contemporary realities that shape the experiences of those living in the region

Saviors and Survivors Mahmood Mamdani, 2010-05-25 From the author of Good Muslim Bad Muslim comes an important book unlike any other that looks at the crisis in Darfur within the context of the history of Sudan and examines the world s response to that crisis In Saviors and Survivors Mahmood Mamdani explains how the conflict in Darfur began as a civil war 1987 89 between nomadic and peasant tribes over fertile land in the south triggered by a severe drought that had expanded the Sahara Desert by more than sixty miles in forty years how British colonial officials had artificially tribalized Darfur dividing its population into native and settler tribes and creating homelands for the former at the expense of the latter how the war intensified in the 1990s when the Sudanese government tried unsuccessfully to address the problem by creating homelands for tribes without any The involvement of opposition parties gave rise in 2003 to two rebel movements leading to a brutal insurgency and a horrific counterinsurgency but not to genocide as the West has declared Mamdani also explains how the Cold War exacerbated the twenty year civil war in neighboring Chad creating a confrontation between Libya s Muammar al Qaddafi with Soviet support and the Reagan administration allied with France and Israel that spilled over into Darfur and militarized the fighting By 2003 the war involved national regional and global forces including the powerful Western lobby who now saw it as part of the War on Terror and called for a military invasion dressed up as humanitarian intervention Incisive and authoritative Saviors and Survivors will radically alter our understanding of the crisis in Darfur

Nigerian Journal of Political Science , 2003 Saviours and Survivors Mahmood Mamdani, 2020-05-05 Saviours and Survivors is the first account of the Darfur crisis to consider recent events within the broad context of Sudan s history and to examine the efficacy of the world s response to the ongoing violence Illuminating the deeply rooted causes of the current conflict Mamdani works from its colonial and Cold War origins to the war s intensification from the 1990s to the present day Examining how the conflict has drawn in national regional and global forces Mamdani deconstructs the powerful Western lobby s persistent calls for a military response dressed up as humanitarian intervention Incisive and authoritative Saviours and Survivors will radically alter our understanding of the crisis in Darfur Tradition, Location and Community Adenrele Awotona, Necdet Teymur, 2024-11-07 Originally published in 1997 as part of the Ethnoscapes Current Challenges in the Environmental Social Sciences series reissued now with a new series introduction Tradition Location and Community Place making and Development brings together the selected papers of seventeen architects social scientists and planners It offers a range of original perspectives on the relationship between the design and habituation of the built environment on the one hand and social and cultural development on the other As an archival volume it attempts to present a mixture of cross disciplinary and cross cultural perspectives It explores the view that planning and design the organization of the physical built environment which follow from the rapid transformations wrought by development must respond to and be based on the wants and needs of the people affected that is it must be in accord with their notions of environmental quality Divided into two sections The first section has five chapters which explore the theoretical and conceptual aspects of place making and development Section two consists of twelve chapters each of which presents a case study

Muslim Modernity in Postcolonial Nigeria Ousmane Kane, 2003-01-01 This book deals with Muslim modernity in a country with the largest single Muslim population in Sub Saharan Africa It provides much needed new grounds for comparative study Until now virtually all socio anthropological works about any specific African country are either authored by nationals of that country or by Western scholars This book is an exception because its author is an Islamicist and a social scientist from Senegal trained in the French social science tradition Therefore his work does offer an original perspective in the study of Nigeria In addition the study of Islam south of the Sahara has so far focused on Sufi orders which form the mainstream of Islam but which by no means covers the whole Islamic field so called Islamic fundamentalist movements are also part of the religious landscape This book is devoted to the study of the largest single Muslim fundamentalist organization in postcolonial Sub Saharan Africa the Society for the Removal of Innovation and Reinstatement of Tradition

Shari'ah on Trial Sarah Eltantawi, 2017-03-28 In November of 1999 Nigerians took to the streets demanding the re implementation of shari ah law in their country Two years later many Nigerians supported the death sentence by stoning of a peasant woman for alleged sexual misconduct Public outcry in the West was met with assurances to the Western public stoning is not a part of Islam stoning happens only in Africa reports of stoning are exaggerated by Western sensationalism However none of these statements are true Shari ah on Trial goes beyond journalistic headlines and liberal pieties to give a powerful account of how Northern Nigerians reached a point of such desperation that they demanded the return of the strictest possible shari ah law Sarah Eltantawi analyzes changing conceptions of Islamic theology and practice as well as Muslim and British interactions dating back to the colonial period to explain the resurgence of shari ah with implications for Muslim majority countries around the world
