The Law Of The Sea Current Problems:

The Law of the Sea René-Jean Dupuy, 1974 International Control of Marine Pollution, Volume 1 Gr.J. Timagenis, 2024-11-18 The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789028605602 ASEAN and the Law of the Sea Phiphat Tangsubkul, 1982 An important contribution to the dearth of literature of ASEAN and the law of the sea this book is the result of extensive research by Dr Tangsubkul an international law specialist The contents are divided into two broad areas The first section on the evolution of the geo juridical nature of ocean space appropriation by coastal states and ASEAN states covers Claims of ASEAN states relating to the law of the sea a historical survey Individual approaches and claims of ASEAN countries on the emerging trends in the law of the sea The special problems of passage through archipelagic waters and straits used for international navigation The second section on problems relating to jurisdiction and rights over living and non living resources of ASEAN countries covers Fishery development in individual ASEAN countries Problems of ASEAN vis vis fishing resources Status of development of petroleum and gas in individual ASEAN states Law and practice relating to the jurisdiction and rights over non living resources in ocean areas adjacent to ASEAN states Problems and potential conflict involving off shore exploration and exploitation of oil and gas P 4 of cover Naval Weapons Systems and the Contemporary Law of War James J. Busuttil, 1998 This book provides the first comprehensive critical analysis of the regulation of naval weapons during armed conflict It examines the experience this century with the use of naval mines submarines and anti ship missiles the three main naval weapons The sources of international law relevant to an assessment of the law that is the extant conventions state practice military manuals war crimes prosecutions and the opinions of publicists are each extensively examined so that a clear picture of the law emerges The book examines the impact of agreements drawn up in peacetime on wartime conduct and focuses on the growth of law through customary practice While stating the law as it is today it also provides suggestions for the practical development of the law Continental Shelf Delimitation and Related Maritime Issues in the Persian Gulf Ahmad Razavi, 2021-09-27 The most significant characteristic of the Persian Gulf is the presence of huge oil fields under the sea bed of its shallow waters On the other hand the lack of understanding among the littoral states concerning the proper exploitation of these valuable resources has led to many conflicts and is still considered as having a very high potential for conflict This work clarifies the international legal rules applicable to the region with particular attention to the special characteristics of the Persian Gulf such as ethnic conflicts lack of defined land borders presence of numerous islands reefs and shoals and the presence of transboundary oil deposits It consists of a collection of materials relating to the law of the sea including both domestic and international rules conventions maritime agreements state practice the jurisprudence of the International Court of Justice and others The study analyses all of these important factors in order to find an equitable solution to the problems facing the international community Selected Legal and Institutional Issues Related to Ocean Thermal Energy Conversion (OTEC) Development Ved P. Nanda, 1979

Equitable Principles of Maritime Boundary Delimitation Thomas Cottier, 2015-04-30 Analysing the role of equity in international law the book offers a detailed case study on maritime boundary delimitation in the context of the enclosure movement in the law of the sea

Pacific Ocean Boundary Problems Mark J. Valencia, 2022-07-04

Freedom of Navigation in the Exclusive Economic Zone Thuy Van Tran, 2022-01-05 This book looks into ship source pollution from an EU perspective and in view of recent far reaching initiatives undertaken by this regional organization These constitute the first regional approach with respect to ship source pollution in the context of the freedom of navigation in the exclusive economic zone where criminalization beyond generally accepted international standards is arguably envisaged With respect to the freedom of navigation of other States in this exclusive economic zone this book confirms that it is closely related to and at times serves as a prerequisite for the exercise of their other freedoms and lawful uses of the sea therein and that any impact on the freedom of navigation of other States in the exclusive economic zone may affect their other freedoms or associated rights

The Application of the High Seas Regime in the Exclusive Economic Zone Frank-Luke Matthew Attard Camilleri, 2018-03-15 This book is about the applicability of the high seas regime in the exclusive economic zone EEZ It analyses all the relevant provisions of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea UNCLOS and goes in depth about the very interesting and complex relationship that exists between the high seas and the EEZ This book examines three cardinal freedoms of the sea freedom of navigation freedom of overflight and freedom to lay submarine cables and pipelines

The Interception of Vessels on the High Seas Efthymios Papastavridis,2014-08-28 The principal aim of this book is to address the international legal questions arising from the right of visit on the high seas in the twenty first century This right is considered the most significant exception to the fundamental principle of the freedom of the high seas the freedom in peacetime to remain free of interference by ships of another flag It is this freedom that has been challenged by a recent significant increase in interceptions to counter the threats of international terrorism and WMD proliferation or to suppress transnational organised crime at sea particularly the trafficking of narcotics and smuggling of migrants The author questions whether the principle of non interference has been so significantly curtailed as to have lost its relevance in the contemporary legal order of the oceans The book begins with an historical and theoretical examination of the framework underlying interception This historical survey informs the remainder of the work which then looks at the legal framework of the right of visit contemporary challenges to the traditional right interference on the high seas for the maintenance of international peace and security interferences to maintain the bon usage of the oceans navigation and fishing piracy j ure gentium and current counter piracy operations off the coast of Somalia the problems posed by illegal unregulated and unreported fishing interdiction operations to counter drug and people trafficking and recent interception operations in the Mediterranean Sea organised by FRONTEX

International Organizations and the Law of the Sea Netherlands Institute for the Law of the Sea,1987 Already in its sixth year of existence this Documentary Yearbook provides you with the only independent collection of documents related to ocean affairs the law of the sea issued each year by international organizations The Yearbook is arranged systematically thereby gives the community of scholars practitioners in ocean affairs the law of the sea much improved access to essential documentation Like the previous volumes the 1990 volume focuses on the United Nations family of international organizations on several non UN intergovernmental organizations of developing states The most important documents which were issued in the course of 1990 are reproduced in whole or in part while other relevant documents are listed An extensive index of Keywords facilitates access by the reader to the complex often interrelated matters dealt with by various organizations as well as to the information concerning individual states regions international instruments

Sharing the Resources of the South China Sea Mark J. Valencia,Jon M. van Dyke,Noel A. Ludwig,2021-09-27 This book should be helpful to decision makers negotiators and academics desirous of a peaceful solution to these disputes
