The Emptiness of Emptiness C. W. Huntington, Namgyal Wangchen, 1992 The Madhyamika or Middle Way a school of Buddhist thought that originated in India in the second or third century was a decisive influence in the subsequent development of Mahayana Buddhism In a new approach to its study The Emptiness of Emptiness reconsiders the central doctrine of emptiness and shows that the Madhyamika critique of all philosophical views is both subtler and more radical than most Western interpretation indicates Building on earlier research into Sanskrit and Tibetan sources the present work also examines the assumptions that have governed the study of Asian soteriological philosophy In assessing the philosophical significance of the Madhyamika the author demonstrates that the thrust toward a self critical awareness of methodological presuppositions lies at the very heart of early Indian Madhyamika In this analysis the self deconstructing categories of Nagarjuna and his immediate followers emerge as an edifying philosophy that may have a great deal to offer to discussion of the related problems of objectivity and relativism issues crucial to current philosophical conversation in the West The volume also contains the first complete English translation of Candrakirti's Madhyamakavatara The Entry into the Middle Way with extensive exegetical and text critical notes

The present volume of essays by leading Western Buddhologists surveys the rich variety of strategies employed by Buddhist thinkers of India, Tibet, China, and Japan to interpret their sacred texts.
