The Letters Of Edwin Lutyens To His Wife Lady Emily:

The Letters of Edwin Lutyens to His Wife Lady Emily Sir Edwin Landseer Lutyens, 1985 The Letters of Edwin Lutyens to His Wife Lady Emily Edwin Lutyens, Clayre Percy, 1988-01-01 The Letters of Edwin Lutyens to His Wife Lady Emily Sir Edwin Landseer Lutyens, 1985 Sir Herbert Baker John Stewart, 2025-02-18 Architect Sir Herbert Baker left an indelible mark on South Africa and much of the British Empire in the first half of the 20th century This is the first full biography from childhood and was written with full cooperation from his family and with access to his archive and private papers After a Victorian architectural apprenticeship in London Sir Herbert Baker went on to become the most prolific architect of his age in South Africa where he designed numerous public buildings churches schools and private houses including the Union Buildings St George's Cathedral and Groote Schuur Thereafter he worked in India Kenya and England where among many other projects he designed South Africa House He was an intimate friend of many fascinating men of his age including Cecil Rhodes T E Lawrence John Buchan and Jan Smuts Lavishly illustrated this biography offers a compelling picture of an architect whose buildings contribute greatly to South Africa's rich history Lady Constance Lytton Lyndsey Jenkins, 2015-03-12 Lady Constance Lytton 1869 1923 was the most unlikely of suffragettes One of the elite she was the daughter of a Viceroy of India and a lady in waiting to the Queen She grew up in the family home of Knebworth and in embassies around the world For forty years she did nothing but devote herself to her family denying herself the love of her life and possible careers as a musician or a reviewer Then came a chance encounter with a suffragette Constance was intrigued witnessing Emmeline and Christabel Pankhurst on trial convinced her of the urgent necessity of votes for women and she went to prison for the cause as gleefully as any child going on a school trip But once jailed Constance soon found that her name and her connections singled her out for unwelcome special treatment By now 1909 the suffragettes were hunger striking and the government had retaliated with force feeding The stories that began to leak out of bungled operations of dirty tubes of screams half heard through brick walls of straitjackets and handcuffs outraged the suffragettes Constance decided on her most radical step yet to go to prison in disguise Taking the name Jane Warton she cut her hair put on glasses and ugly clothes and got herself arrested in Liverpool Once in prison she was force fed eight times before her identity was discovered and she was released Her case became a cause célèbre with debate raging in The Times and questions being asked in the House of Commons Lady Constance Lytton became an inspiration and in the end a martyr In this extraordinary new biography Lyndsey Jenkins reveals for the first time the fascinating story of the woman who abandoned a life of privilege to fight for women's rights The Country House Revealed Dan Cruickshank, 2012-07-31 Spanning the architectural history of the country house from the disarming Elizabethan charm of South Wraxall the classical rigour of Kinross in Scotland the majesty and ingenuity of Hawksmoor's Easton Neston the Palladian sweep of Wentworth Woodhouse with over 300 rooms and frontage of 600 feet the imperial exuberance of Clondeboy through to the ebullient vitality of

Lutyens Marshcourt the stories of these houses tell the story of our nation All are the are buildings of the greatest architectural interest each with a fascinating human story to tell and all remain private homes that are closed to the public But their owners have opened their doors and allowed Dan Cruickshank to roam the corridors and rummage in the cellars as he teases out the story of each house who built them the generations who lived in them and the families who lost them Along the way he has uncovered tales of excess and profligacy tragedy comedy power and ambition And as these intriguing narratives take shape Dan shows how the story of each house is inseparable from the social and economic history of Britain Each one is built as a wave of economic development crests or crumbles Each one s architecture and design is thus expressive of the aims strengths and frailties of those who built them Together they plot the psychological economic and social route map of our country s ruling class in a rich new telling of our island story

Women and Marriage in Nineteenth-Century England Mrs Joan Perkin,Joan Perkin,2002-11-01 The bonds of matrimony describes with cruel precision the social and political status of married women in the nineteenth century Women of all classes had only the most limited rights of possession in their own bodies and property yet as this remarkable book shows women of all classes found room to manoeuvre within the narrow limits imposed on them Upper class women frequently circumvented the onerous limitations of the law while middle class women sought through reform to change their legal status For working class women such legal changes were irrelevant but they too found ways to ameliorate their position Joan Perkin demonstrates clearly in this outstanding book full of human insights that women were not content to remain inferior or subservient to men

Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement Judith B. Tankard,2018-11-27 The ever alluring Arts and Crafts garden is profoundly relevant to our 21st century needs Sam Watters author of Gardens for a Beautiful America In Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement landscape scholar Judith B Tankard surveys the inspirations characteristics and development of garden design during this iconic movement Tankard presents a selection of houses and gardens of the era from Great Britain and North America With almost 300 illustrations and photographs and an emphasis on the diversity of designers who helped forge the movement Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement is an essential resource for this truly distinct approach to garden design

Victorian Bloomsbury Rosemary Ashton,2012-09-14 While Bloomsbury is now associated with Virginia Woolf and her early twentieth century circle of writers and artists the neighborhood was originally the undisputed intellectual quarter of nineteenth century London Drawing on a wealth of untapped archival resources Rosemary Ashton brings to life the educational medical and social reformists who lived and worked in Victorian Bloomsbury and who led crusades for education emancipation and health for all Ashton explores the secular impetus behind these reforms and the humanitarian and egalitarian character of nineteenth century Bloomsbury Thackeray and Dickens jostle with less famous characters like Henry Brougham and Mary Ward Embracing the high life of the squares the nonconformity of churches the parades of shops schools hospitals and poor homes this is a major contribution to the history of nineteenth century London

Steps to Water Morna Livingston, 2002-04 From the fifth to the nineteenth centuries the people of western India built stone cisterns to collect the water of the monsoon rains and keep it accessible for the remaining dry months of the year These magnificent structures known as stepwells or stepped ponds are much more than utilitarian reservoirs Their lattice like walls carved columns decorated towers and intricate sculpture make them exceptional architecture while their very presence tells much about the region's ecology and history For these past 500 years stepwells have been an integral part of western Indian communities as sites for drinking washing and bathing as well as for colorful festivals and sacred rituals Steps to Water traces the fascinating history of stepwells from their Hindu origins to their zenith during Muslim rule and eventual decline under British occupation It also reflects on their current use preservation and place in Indian communities In stunning color and quadrtone photographs and drawings Steps to Water reveals the depth of the stepwells beauty and their intricate details and serves as a lens on these fascinating cultural and architectural monuments

The Architect and His Wife Jane Ridley, 2002 This is a full biography of a witty complex personality a man who had little formal education who loved jokes and hated growing up It is also a portrait of an extraordinary marriage His wife Emily fell in love with Krishnamurti 21 years her junior and believed to be the reincarnation of a god and she thereafter spent her time and her husband's money promoting Theosophy a Hindu inspired cult Lutyens's failure to find a common language with Emily possibly drove him to achieve the remarkable communication through the language of architecture which characterises his best work

BOOK JACKET Becoming Indian, 2012 The English Marriage Maureen Waller, 2010-05-13 The story of the English marriage is unique and eccentric Long after the rest of Europe and neighbouring Scotland had reformed their marriage laws England clung to the chaotic and contradictory laws of the medieval Church making it all too easy to enter into a marriage but virtually impossible to end an unhappy one If England was a paradise for wives it could only have been through the feistiness of the women Married women were placed in the same legal category as lunatics While Englishmen prided themselves on their devotion to liberty their wives were no freer than slaves It was a husband's jealously guarded right to beat his wife as long as the stick was no bigger than his thumb Only after 1882 could a married woman even retain her own property But then marriage was all about property in a society which was both mercenary and violent where a girl was virtually sold into marriage and a price was put on a wife's chastity With a cast of hundreds from loyal and devoted wives in troubled times to those who featured in notorious trials for adultery from abusive husbands whose excesses were only gradually curbed by the law to the modern phenomenon of the toxic wife acclaimed historian Maureen Waller draws on intimate letters diaries court documents and advice books to trace the evolution of the English marriage It is social history at its most revealing astonishing and entertaining

Sacred and Secular Martyrdom in Britain and Ireland since 1914 John Wolffe, 2019-11-28 During and immediately after the First World War there was a merging of Christian and nationalist traditions of martyrdom expressed in the design of war cemeteries and war memorials and the state funeral of the Unknown

Warrior in 1920 John Wolffe explores the subsequent development of these traditions of sacred and secular martyrdom analysing the ways in which they operated sometimes in parallel sometimes merged together and sometimes in conflict with each other Particular topics explored include the Protestant commemoration of Marian and missionary martyrs and the Roman Catholic campaign for the canonization of the saints and martyrs of England Secular martyrdom is discussed in relation to military conflicts especially the Second World War and the Falklands In Ireland there was a particularly persistent merging of sacred and secular martyrdom in the wake of the Easter Rising of 1916 although by the time of the Northern Ireland Troubles in the later twentieth century these traditions diverged In covering these themes the book also offers historical and comparative context for understanding present day acts of martyrdom in the form of suicide attacks Mr. Darley's Arabian Christopher McGrath,2017-03-07 In 1704 a bankrupt English merchant sent home the colt he had bought from Bedouin tribesmen near the ruins of Palmyra Thomas Darley hoped this horse might be the ticket to a new life back in Yorkshire But he turned out to be far more than that and although Mr Darley s Arabian never ran a race 95% of all thoroughbreds in the world today are descended from him In this book for the first time award winning racing writer Christopher McGrath traces this extraordinary bloodline through twenty five generations to our greatest modern racehorse Frankel The story of racing is about man s relationship with horses and Mr Darley s Arabian also celebrates the men and women who owned trained and traded the stallions that extended the dynasty McGrath expertly guides us through three centuries of scandals adventures and fortunes won and lost our sporting life offers a fascinating view into our history With a canvas that extends from the diamond mines of South Africa to the trenches of the Great War and a cast ranging from Smithfield meat salesmen to the inspiration for Mr Toad and from legendary jockeys to not one but two disreputable Princes of Wales and a very unamused Queen Victoria Mr Darley s Arabian shows us the many faces of the sport of kings A Genius for Money Caroline Dakers,2012-01-24 This is the spectacular rags to riches story of James Morrison 1789 1857 who began life humbly but through hard work and entrepreneurial brilliance acquired a fortune unequalled in nineteenth century England Using the extensive Morrison archive Caroline Dakers presents the first substantial biography of the richest commoner in England recounting the details of Morrison s personal life while also placing him in the Victorian age of enterprise that made his success possible An affectionate husband and father of ten Morrison made his first fortune in textiles then a second in international finance He invested in North American railways was involved in global trade from Canton to Valparaiso created hundreds of jobs and relished the challenges of the science of business His success enabled him to acquire land houses and works of art on a scale to rival the grandest of aristocrats New Delhi: The Last Imperial City D. Johnson,2016-01-12 Johnson provides an historically rich examination of the intersection of early twentieth century imperial culture imperial politics and imperial economics as reflected in the colonial built environment at New Delhi a remarkably ambitious imperial capital built by the British between 1911 and 1931 Arts and Crafts Architecture Julian

Holder,2021-01-25 The Arts and Crafts Movement produced some of the country's most popular loved and recognizable buildings This book guides the general reader through its history from the mid nineteenth century to the early twentieth Of equal interest to those with a more informed interest it will open your eyes to the richness and beauty of one of the most important artistic movements the British Isles ever produced This beautifully illustrated book includes a comprehensive thematic introduction an up to date history of Arts and Crafts architecture the key individual and the characteristics of the buildings In depth case studies of all the major buildings are given as well as those overlooked by the current literature There is a useful accompanying guide to places to visit and finally a list of stunning Arts and Crafts buildings you can stay in

Henrietta Barnett, of Hampstead Garden Suburb Micky Watkins,2020-06-22 The feminist social reformer Henrietta Barnett 1851-1936 is best known as the moving spirit behind the creation of London's Hampstead Garden Suburb Yet as Micky Watkins shows in this lively biography the Suburb was only the final achievement of a long and varied career of social engagement much of it spent among the worst slums of London's East End Octavia Hill John Ruskin Walter Crane Beatrice Webb Arnold Toynbee and Herbert Spencer as well as innumerable East Enders often riotously immune to attempts at their improvement people this vivid account A woman of immense energy Henrietta's role in both Toynbee Hall and the Whitechapel Art Gallery was central to their foundation and continued success and she spent the latter half of her life in realising her dream project of building Hampstead Garden Suburb Henrietta's work in town planning won the admiration of the American feminist Jane Addams and in the USA she was feted by Henry Ford Dale Carnegie and John Rockefeller Drawing on hitherto unpublished sources Micky Watkins traces Henrietta's ground breaking achievement in building in North London the utopian Hampstead Garden Suburb to house all classes and conditions of people as an antidote to the East End slums Her Suburb has influenced town planning all over the world Commemorations John R. Gillis,2018-06-05

Memory is as central to modern politics as politics is central to modern memory We are so accustomed to living in a forest of monuments to having the past represented to us through museums historic sites and public sculpture that we easily lose sight of the recent origins and diverse meanings of these uniquely modern phenomena In this volume leading historians anthropologists and ethnographers explore the relationship between collective memory and national identity in diverse cultures throughout history Placing commemorations in their historical settings the contributors disclose the contested nature of these monuments by showing how groups and individuals struggle to shape the past to their own ends The volume is introduced by John Gillis's broad overview of the development of public memory in relation to the history of the nation state Other contributions address the usefulness of identity as a cross cultural concept Richard Handler the connection between identity heritage and history David Lowenthal national memory in early modern England David Cressy commemoration in Cleveland John Bodnar the museum and the politics of social control in modern Iraq Eric Davis invented tradition and collective memory in Israel Yael Zerubavel black emancipation and the civil war monument Kirk Savage
