The Stigmata in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Carolyn Muessig,2020-02-06 Francis of Assisi s reported reception of the stigmata on Mount La Verna in 1224 is almost universally considered to be the first documented account of an individual miraculously and physically receiving the five wounds of Christ The early thirteenth century appearance of this miracle however is not as unexpected as it first seems Interpretations of Galatians 6 17 I bear the marks of the Lord Jesus Christ in my body had been circulating since the early Middle Ages in biblical commentaries These works perceived those with the stigmata as metaphorical representations of martyrs bearing the marks of persecution in order to spread the teaching of Christ in the face of resistance By the seventh century the meaning of Galatians 6 17 had been appropriated by bishops and priests as a sign or mark of Christ that they received invisibly at their ordination Priests and bishops came to be compared to soldiers of Christ who bore the brand stigmata of God on their bodies just like Roman soldiers who were branded with the name of their emperor By the early twelfth century crusaders were said to bear the actual marks of the passion in death and even sometimes as they entered into battle The Stigmata in Late Medieval and Early Modern Europe traces the birth and evolution of religious stigmata and particularly of stigmatic theology as understood through the ensemble of theological discussions and devotional practices Carolyn Muessig assesses the role stigmatics played in medieval and early modern religious culture and the way their contemporaries reacted to them The period studied covers the dominant discourse of stigmatic theology that is from Peter Damian s eleventh century theological writings to 1630 when the papacy officially recognised the authenticity of Catherine of Siena s stigmata Conflicted Identities and Multiple Masculinities Jacqueline Murray,2013-09-05 Conflicted Identities and Multiple Masculinities takes as its focus the construction of masculinity in Western Europe from the early Middle Ages until the fifteenth century crossing from pre Christian Scandinavia across western Christendom The essays consult a broad and representative cross section of sources including the work of theological scholastic and monastic writers sagas hagiography and memoirs material culture chronicles exempla and vernacular literature sumptuary legislation and the records of ecclesiastical courts The studies address questions of what constituted male identity and male sexuality How was masculinity constructed in different social groups How did the secular and ecclesiastical ideals of masculinity reinforce each other or diverge These essays address the topic of medieval men and through a variety of theoretical methodological and disciplinary approaches significantly extend our understanding of how in the Middle Ages masculinity and identity were conflicted and multifarious The Letters of Peter Damian: Letters 31-60 Saint Peter Damian,1989 Bounded Wilderness Kathryn Jasper,2024-10-15 In Bounded Wilderness Kathryn Jasper focuses on the innovations undertaken at the hermitage of Fonte Avellana in central Italy during the eleventh century by its prior Peter Damian d 1072 The congregation of Fonte Avellana experimented with reforming practices that led to new ways of managing property and relations among clergy nobles and the laity Jasper charts how Damian s notion of monastic reform took advantage of the surrounding topography and geography to amplify the sensory aspects of ascetic experiences By focusing on monastic landscapes and land ownership Jasper demonstrates that reform extended beyond abstract ideas Rather reform circulated locally through monastic networks and addressed practical concerns such as property boundaries and rights over water orchards pastures and mills Putting new sources both documentary and archaeological into conversation with monastic charters and Damian s letters Bounded Wilderness reveals the interrelationship of economic practices religious traditions and the natural environment in the idea and implementation of reform A Pious Seductress Géza G. Xeravits,2012-01-27 The present volume contains papers delivered at the International Conference on the Deuterocanonical Books held at the Sapientia College of Theology Budapest Hungary 14 16 May 2009 The contributions explore various aspects of the Book of Judith its textual versions historical background theological ideas and literary afterlife The conference on which this volume is based was the most comprehensive scholarly meeting devoted recently to the Book of Judith The contributors reopened several basic questions concerning the writing such as the identification of concrete historical personalities reflected in the book or some aspects of the halakhic system of the author The scope of the contributions extends also to the late mediaeval use of the book by European playwrights Romanesque and the Past John McNeill,Richard Plant,2024-11-01 The nineteen papers collected in this volume explore a notable phenomenon that of retrospection in the art and architecture of Romanesque Europe They arise from a conference organized by the British Archaeological Association in 2010 and reflect its interest in how and why the past manifested itself in the visual culture of the 11th and 12th centuries This took many forms from the casual re use of ancient material to a specific desire to re present or emulate earlier objects and buildings Central to it is a concern for the revival of Roman and early medieval forms spolia selective quotation archaism and the construction of histories The individual essays presented here cover a wide range of topics and media the significance of consecration ceremonies in the creation of architectural memory the rise of pictorial concepts in 12th century chronicles the creation of history in the Paris of Hugh of St Victor and the appeal of the works of Bernward of Hildesheim and of Hrabanus Maurus in the centuries after their deaths There are studies of buildings and the ideological purpose behind them at Tarragona Ripoll Cluny Pannonhalma Hungary La Roccelletta Calabria and Old St Peter s comparative studies of Trier Villenauve and Glastonbury and of Bury St Edmunds Rievaulx and Canterbury and wide ranging papers on the tantalizing evidence for an engagement with an overseas past in Ireland an Anglo Saxon past in England and a Milanese past among the aisleless cruciform churches of Augustinian Europe The volume concludes with an assessment of the very concept of Romanesque

The Forge of Christendom Tom Holland,2009-05-05 A grand narrative history of the re emergence of Europe following the collapse of the Roman Empire At the approach of the first millennium the Christians of Europe did not seem likely candidates for future greatness Weak fractured and hemmed in by hostile nations they saw no future beyond the widely anticipated Second Coming of Christ But when the world did not end the peoples of Western Europe suddenly found themselves with no choice but to begin the heroic task of building a Jerusalem on earth In The Forge of Christendom Tom Holland masterfully describes this remarkable new age a time of caliphs and Viking sea kings the spread of castles and the invention of knighthood It was one of the most significant departure points in history the emergence of Western Europe as a distinctive and expansionist power

Divine Power and Possibility in St. Peter Damian's De divina omnipotentia Irven M. Resnick,2021-10-25 Contemporary critics have argued that medieval philosophers have transmitted a concept of divine omnipotence that is unintelligible and self contradictory one which defines omnipotence as a power capable of producing any effect whatsoever This study concentrating upon the first Latin treatise explicitly devoted to omnipotence places the concept of divine power in its patristic and early medieval context in order to demonstrate that this traditional concept of omnipotence was quite unknown among pre scholastic figures This work illuminates the patristic and early medieval background to Damian s seminal text and its theological and philosophical concerns It explores Damian s central argument that God can if He wills even annul the past This conclusion stems from Damian s insistence that divinity s primary attribute is Goodness and not Being As such God s power remains constrained only by divine goodness and is able to do anything whatsoever even effect a logical contradiction if it is good to do so

Women in Western Intellectual Culture, 600-1500 P. Ranft,2003-01-03 Western intellectual tradition has long been viewed as an exclusive male bastion but Women in Western Intellectual Culture 600 1500 proves that this thesis is no longer tenable By identifying and analyzing the intellectual writings and activities of women throughout the centuries this study the first of two volumes documents a level of participation in intellectual matters that will surprise many readers The quality and quantity of these contributions show that women s voices deserve more attention in intellectual history

Learning as Shared Practice in Monastic Communities, 1070-1180 Micol Long,2021-10-11 In this study Micol Long looks at Latin letters written in Western Europe between 1070 and 1180 to reconstruct how monks and nuns learned from each other in a continuous informal and reciprocal way during their daily communal life The book challenges the common understanding of education as the transmission of knowledge via a hierarchical master disciple learning model and shows how knowledge was also shared exchanged jointly processed and developed Long presents a new and more complicated picture of reciprocal knowledge exchanges which could be horizontal and bottom up as well as vertical and where the same individuals could assume different educational roles depending on the specific circumstances and on the learning contents See inside the book

Loving and Hating the World James Lawson,2021-12-29 What is it that makes discipleship authentic Discipleship involves learning how to be in the world but not of the world The first Christians were ambivalent about the world God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son but friendship with the world is enmity with God So discipleship involves learning how to live with this ambivalence and an ancient tension between loving and hating the world This book offers a deeper understanding of what discipleship means by tracing the history of this ambivalence from the New Testament to the present It presents a revisionary account of this history as a continuing and nonnegotiable tension between loving and hating the world rather than a simple transition from medieval world denial to modern world affirmation It argues that this tension helped produce our own secular age and it considers modern Jewish and Christian philosophical and theological responses to this history that suggest ways that Christians can negotiate this tension to be more authentic disciples today Petrarch Victoria Kirkham,Armando Maggi,2024-05-31 Although Francesco Petrarca 1304 74 is best known today for cementing the sonnet s place in literary history he was also a philosopher historian orator and one of the foremost classical scholars of his age Petrarch A Critical Guide to the Complete Works is the only comprehensive single volume source to which anyone scholar student or general reader can turn for information on each of Petrarch s works its place in the poet s oeuvre and a critical exposition of its defining features A sophisticated but accessible handbook that illuminates Petrarch s love of classical culture his devout Christianity his public celebrity and his struggle for inner peace this encyclopedic volume covers both Petrarch s Italian and Latin writings and the various genres in which he excelled poem tract dialogue oration and letter A biographical introduction and chronology anchor the book making Petrarch an invaluable resource for specialists in Italian comparative literature history classics religious studies the Middle Ages and the Renaissance Nuns' Priests' Tales Fiona J. Griffiths,2025-02-01 During the Middle Ages female monasteries relied on priests to provide for their spiritual care chiefly to celebrate Mass in their chapels but also to hear the confessions of their nuns and give last rites to their sick and dying These men were essential to the flourishing of female monasticism during the eleventh and twelfth centuries yet they rarely appear in scholarly accounts of the period Medieval sources are hardly more forthcoming Although medieval churchmen consistently acknowledged the necessity of male spiritual supervision in female monasteries they also warned against the dangers to men of association with women Nuns Priests Tales investigates gendered spiritual hierarchies from the perspective of nuns priests ordained men often local monks who served the spiritual needs of monastic women Celibacy misogyny and the presumption of men s withdrawal from women within the religious life have often been seen as markers of male spirituality during the period of church reform Yet as Fiona J Griffiths illustrates men s support and care for religious women could be central to male spirituality and pious practice Nuns priests frequently turned to women for prayer and intercession viewing women s prayers as superior to their own since they were the prayers of Christ s brides Casting nuns as the brides of Christ and adopting for themselves the role of paranymphus bridesman or friend of the bridegroom these men constructed a triangular spiritual relationship in which service to nuns was part of their dedication to Christ Focusing on men's spiritual ideas about women and their spiritual service to them Nuns Priests Tales reveals a clerical counter discourse in which spiritual care for women was depicted as a holy service and an act of devotion and obedience to Christ

The Oxford Handbook of Medieval Christianity John H. Arnold, 2014-08-21 The Oxford Handbook of Medieval Christianity takes as its subject the beliefs practices and institutions of the Christian Church between 400 and 1500AD It addresses topics ranging from early medieval monasticism to late medieval mysticism from the material wealth of the Church to the spiritual exercises through which certain believers might attempt to improve their souls Each chapter tells a story but seeks also to ask how and why Christianity took particular forms at particular moments in history paying attention to both the spiritual and otherworldly aspects of religion and the material and political contexts in which they were often embedded This Handbook is a landmark academic collection that presents cutting edge interpretive perspectives on medieval religion for a wide academic audience drawing together thirty key scholars in the field from the United States the UK and Europe Notably the Handbook is arranged thematically and focusses on an analytical rather than narrative approach seeking to demonstrate the variety change and complexity of religion throughout this long period and the numerous different ways in which modern scholarship can approach it While providing a very wide ranging view of the subject it also offers an important agenda for further study in the field

Hugh Eteriano, Contra Patarenos Bernard Hamilton, 2004-12-01 The Pisan scholar Hugh Eteriano was adviser on western church affairs to Manuel Comnenus and lived in Constantinople from c 1165-82 where he encountered an heretical group among the western inhabitants of the city which prompted him to write the Contra Patarenos Patarenos was an alternative name for Cathars and this text is of considerable importance to an understanding of the relationship between the western Cathars and older Byzantine dualist movements Hugh's treatise is here published for the first time in a text established from the two extant manuscripts together with a commentary and translation a biography of the author and an historical introduction about the place of Hugh's treatise in the history of Christian dualism
