North-South Co-operation Caroline Sweetman, 1994 This book in the Focus on Gender series looks at co operation for development between North South and East women s organisations and funding agencies development practitioners academics and civil society politicians and economists and women and men Currently the world is in economic and political crisis of which escalating conflict is a symptom In this book writers from South and North stress that such crisis can only be resolved if we recognise that we are all involved in a global system which perpetuates poverty and inequality not only in the South and East but also in the North Organisations which seek to relieve poverty must find ways to listen to value and learn from Southern experience of development Linking initiatives are one way of enabling people of different cultures and backgrounds to share experience build mutual respect and reach common ground while acknowledging the value of difference It is essential for Northern funding agencies to foster multiculturalism and gender equity within their own structures as well as in their work with Southern counterparts Topics covered include making the global links between women and poverty listening to the South linking for solidarity women s participation and international fora the true meaning of partnership and the feminisation of organisational culture Several articles reflect on the rich experience and lessons of Oxfam s Women s Linking Project

The Knotted Subject Elisabeth Bronfen, 2014-07-14 Surrealist writer Andr Breton praised hysteria for being the greatest poetic discovery of the nineteenth century but many physicians have since viewed it as the wastebasket of medicine a psychosomatic state that defies attempts at definition and cure and that can be easily mistaken for other pathological conditions In light of a resurgence of critical interest in hysteria leading feminist scholar Elisabeth Bronfen reinvestigates medical writings and cultural performance to reveal the continued relevance of a disorder widely thought to be a romantic formulation of the past Through a critical rereading she develops a new concept of hysteria one that challenges traditional gender based theories linking it to dissatisfied feminine sexual desire

Bronfen turns instead to hysteria's traumatic causes particularly the fear of violation and shows how the conversion of psychic anguish into somatic symptoms can be interpreted today as the enactment of personal and cultural discontent. Tracing the development of cultural formations of hysteria from the 1800s to the present this book explores the writings of Freud Charcot and Janet together with fictional texts Radcliffe Stoker Anne Sexton opera Mozart Wagner cinema Cronenberg Hitchcock Woody Allen and visual art Marie Ange Guilleminot Cindy Sherman. Each of these creative works attests to a particular relationship between hysteria and self fashioning and enables us to read hysteria quite literally as a language of discontent. The message broadcasted by the hysteric is one of vulnerability vulnerability of the symbolic of identity and of the human body itself. Throughout this work Bronfen not only offers fresh approaches to understanding hysteria in our culture but also introduces a new metaphor to serve as a theoretical tool. Whereas the phallus has long dominated psychoanalytical discourse the image of the navel a knotted originary wound common to both genders facilitates discussion of topics relevant to hysteria such as trauma mortality and infinity. Bronfen's insights make for a lively innovative work sure to interest readers across the fields of art and literature feminism and psychology. Stephen King's Contemporary Classics Philip L. Simpson, Patrick McAleer, 2014-11-13 Many readers know Stephen King for his early works of horror from his fiction debut Carrie to his blockbuster novels The Shining The Stand and Misery among others. While he continues to be a best selling author King's more recent fiction has not received the kind of critical attention that his books from the 1970s and 1980s enjoyed. Recent novels like Duma Key and 12/22/63 have been marginalized and arguably cast aside as anomalies within the author's extensive canon. In Stephen King's Contemporary Classics: Reflections on the Modern Master of Horror Philip L. Simpson and Patrick McAleer present a collection of essays that analyze assess and critique King's post 1995 compositions. Purposefully side stepping studies of earlier work these essays are arranged into three main parts: the first section examines five King novels published between 2009 and 2013 offering genuinely fresh scholarship on King; the second part looks at the development of King's distinct brand of horror; the third section departs from probing the content of King's writing and instead focuses on King's process. By concentrating on King's most recent writings this collection offers provocative insights into the author's work featuring essays on Dr. Sleep Duma Key The Girl Who Loved Tom Gordon Joyland Under the Dome and others. As such Stephen King's Contemporary Classics will appeal to general fans of the author's work as well as scholars of Stephen King and modern literature.
