Literature John Givens, 2018-05-29 Vladimir Nabokov complained about the number of Dostoevsky s characters sinning their way to Jesus In truth Christ is an elusive figure not only in Dostoevsky s novels but in Russian literature as a whole The rise of the historical critical method of biblical criticism in the nineteenth century and the growth of secularism it stimulated made an earnest affirmation of Jesus in literature highly problematic If they affirmed Jesus too directly writers paradoxically risked diminishing him either by deploying faith explanations that no longer persuade in an age of skepticism or by reducing

Christ to a mere argument in an ideological dispute The writers at the heart of this study understood that to reimage Christ for their age they had to make him known through indirect even negative ways lest what they say about him be mistaken for cliché doctrine or naïve apologetics The Christology of Dostoevsky Leo Tolstoy Mikhail Bulgakov and Boris Pasternak is thus apophatic because they deploy negative formulations saying what God is not in their writings about Jesus Professions of atheism in Dostoevsky and Tolstoy's non-divine Jesus are but separate negative paths toward truer discernment of Christ This first study in English of the image of Christ in Russian literature highlights the importance of apophaticism as a theological practice and a literary method in understanding the Russian Christ It also emphasizes the importance of skepticism in Russian literary attitudes toward Jesus on the part of writers whose private crucibles of doubt produced some of the most provocative and enduring images of Christ in world literature This important study will appeal to scholars and students of Orthodox Christianity and Russian literature as well as educated general readers interested in religion and nineteenth century Russian novels

The Message of Love Patrick Mitchel, 2019-09-19 Love such a deceptively simple and popular little word It is universally agreed that we need love to live and flourish as human beings and yet within our contemporary culture there are numerous confusing competing and evolving ideas about what love is There are few greater subjects in Christian theology than love yet it is a surprisingly complex and challenging concept to understand let alone live out faithfully Patrick Mitchel's conviction is that Christians need to be thinking about and practising love in compelling and authentic ways Our task is not only to articulate what love is but also to show to the world what true Christian love looks like in practice The only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love Gal 5:6 NIV Mitchel's exposition explores love in the Old Testament how the love of God is supremely revealed in the mission and death of Jesus Christ love in the life and teaching of Jesus and the church's calling to be a community of love He helps us to grasp afresh the breadth depth scope and radically counter-cultural nature of the Bible's teaching on love With a fully integrated study guide suitable for both individuals and groups The Message of Love will help you to see how the Bible's unified teaching on this vital theme can impact your life today
